

'60s

Thomas Scanlon, JD '63, was recognized by the Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association for his contributions to the community and his profession. He is a founding partner of the Cleveland law firm of Collins & Scanlon.

John Nussrallah, BBA '69, was named senior vice president, transportation business, for Thomas Group Inc. He lives in Fort Worth, Texas.

'70s

Myron "Mike" Filarski, BA '71, joined KeyBank NA as president of KeyBank Mortgage, a division of Key's Community Bank. Most recently he was senior vice president of mortgage lending at Fifth Third Bank.

Louis Tripodi, MEd '72, retired after 34 years as a faculty member at Clarion University of Pennsylvania.

Edward Macek, BBA '72, joined BBK, an international business advisory firm, as a director. He formerly was the chief financial officer at Drivesol Worldwide Inc.

Lynn T. Dostal, BBA '72 and MBA '73, moved to Homosassa, Fla. last year and is a special education teacher at Crystal River Middle School.

James Mitchell Brown, JD '73, of Attorney Consultant Inc. in Cleveland, volunteered with Legal Services in New Orleans, helping to restructure the procedures for signing up for Social Security disability and processing claims.

Gilbert B. Chapman II, MS '73, graduated from the University of Windsor this summer with a Ph.D. in physics. He lives in Farmington Hills, Mich.

Howard E. Rose, JD '74, is an immigration judge in Houston, Texas, after 25 years as a federal prosecutor. He is a retired lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Army Reserve.

Thomas M. O'Brien, JD '75, retired after 25 years as a prosecutor and five years of private law practice. He now lives in Pinchurst, N.C., and is an assistant marketing director for Comfort Keepers, an at-home care company.

Gary A. Ebert, JD '75, was named an Ohio Super Lawyer in 2006 and 2007. He is the managing administrative partner of Seeley, Savidge & Ebert and has been the law director of Bay Village for 21 years.

Patricia Pearson Hubbard, BA '75, marked 10 years as director of the 4H Youth Development Program at Cornell Cooperative Extension. She also is an adjunct professor at the School of Social Welfare at Stony Brook University.

Terry Wilk, BBA '75, joined Henry Medical Center in Georgia as vice president and chief information officer.

Monte Ahuja, MBA '75, and his family received the Samuel Mather Award from University Hospitals in recognition of a $30 million donation. The award was presented on the same day the hospital broke ground for the Ahuja Medical Center, a 600-bed hospital being built in Beachwood. Ahuja is the chairman and chief executive officer of Transtar Industries, Inc.

Joseph Obleton, BA '76, is a learning skills counselor at Black Hawk College in Moline, Ill.

Dennis P. Maille, BSCE '76, was named a principal of Thorson Baker & Associates, an engineering services firm based in Richfield, Ohio.

Maria Boss, BA '77, stepped down as president and chief executive officer of Cleveland Scholarship Programs but continues to serve the organization as a consultant.

Paul Bures, BSIE '77, has authored a book about oil independence and global warming titled America: The Oil Hostage. He lives in North Royalton and is the owner of ES&L Properties.

Fred Cash, BSCE '77, was appointed by Gov. Ted Strickland to a four-year term on the Ohio Soil and Water Conservation Commission. The Richmond Heights resident is also serving his second term on the Cuyahoga Soil and Water Conservation District's board of supervisors. He has been with CT Consultants Inc. for over 21 years as project manager and project engineer in the municipal service division. His wife, Janice, is a 1979 master's of education graduate.

Terry Pluto, BA '77, rejoined the sports staff of The Plain Dealer after 22 years with the Akron Beacon Journal. The author and nationally known columnist, named Ohio Sportswriter of the Year eight times, covered the Indians for the PD from 1979 to 1984.

Paul Gemperline, BS '78 and Ph.D. '82, is the associate vice chancellor for research and graduate studies at East Carolina University, as well as an Arts and Sciences Distinguished Professor of chemistry.

Carmen Nazario, BA '78 and MPA '06, lives in Rocky River and is a supervising U.S. probation officer.

Adina Bloom Lewkowicz, BA '79, authored Teaching Emotional Intelligence: Strategies and Activities for Helping Students Make Effective Choices.

Craig Cox, BME '79, is the vice president of manufacturing at Patio Enclosures Inc., as well as a member of the firm's board of directors.

Harold Covert, MBA '79, was appointed to the Harmonic Inc. board of directors as chair of the audit committee. He is the executive vice president and chief financial officer of Openwave Systems.

'80s

Robert A. Steele, MBA '80, was elected to the Kellogg Company board of directors. For more than 30 years, Steele has worked for Procter & Gamble, where he is the vice chairman of global health and well-being.

Gregory F. Clifford, JD '80, is the chief magistrate of Cleveland Municipal Court.

Timothy P. Cannon, JD '80, was appointed by Gov. Ted Strickland to serve as a judge on the 11th District Court of Appeals for a term ending in January 2009. The Painesville Township resident is a partner in Cannon, Stern and Aveni Co. L.P.A.

C L A S S  N O T E S

Keith L. Vencel, BA '81, is a human resources professional and faculty practitioner with the University of Phoenix, Northern California campus. He has been recognized for helping a large healthcare network in Northern California change its recruiting process from paper-based resumes to electronic candidate profiles, thereby streamlining the hiring process from weeks to days.

Edward Leigh, BA '81, is a motivational speaker and author of Trauma to Triumph: Finding Strength Throughout the Cancer Experience.

Keith Wyche, BBA '81, was featured in Diversity MBA's July 2007 list of Top 50 Under 50 African American MBA corporate executives. He is the president of North American operations for Pitney Bowes Management Services.

Raymond C. Wilson, BBA '81 and MAFIS '85, was appointed controller and treasurer of Toyota Financial Savings Bank in Henderson, Nev.

Gary S. Austin, MBA '82, joined Beach First National Bank as executive vice president and chief financial officer of both the bank and its holding company, Beach First National Bancshares Inc. He lives in Myrtle Beach, S.C.

Randy D. Rinicella, MBA '82 and JD '85, joined Houston-based HCC Insurance Holdings Inc. as senior vice president and general counsel. Most recently he was general counsel and secretary of Dresser-Rand Group Inc.

Barbara J. Rowland Hise, MED '83, retired after 27 years as director of strings in the Shaker Heights Public Schools and nearly 32 years of teaching strings and music in Shaker Heights, Connecticut and Illinois.

Carl J. Grassi, JD '84, is president of Cleveland-based McDonald Hopkins LLC. He has been with the law firm since 1992.

Charlene Jones, MBA '84, is the senior inclusion director at JumpStart, responsible for matters related to diversity.

Fay Brownlee Miller, MED '85, was selected for inclusion in the 11th edition of Who's Who Among American Teachers and Educators 2006-07. This was her fifth nomination since 1990.

Recently retired after 30 years in the classroom, Miller taught elementary school in both Cleveland and Shaker Heights.

Carol Fishell Bennis, BA '85, was named chief executive officer of Beet Street Inc. in Fort Collins, Colo. Beet Street is an economic development initiative to launch a formal cultural arts district in northern Colorado. Bennis' husband, Joe, is a Cleveland State graduate (MA '81 and MBA '85).

John Schoeniger, BSED '85, was named loan fund manager at ShoreBank Enterprise Detroit. He formerly was vice president of residential real estate lending for ShoreBank in Cleveland.

Sheryl Hoffman, BA '85, was selected as the new director of SPACES, a nonprofit art gallery for emerging talent in Cleveland. A sculptor, she had been director of Art House Inc. on Cleveland's near west side.

Tim Angbrandt, MBA '85, is the marketing manager at Tuthill Coupling Group, a global manufacturer and distributor. He lives in Brunswick.

Harry J. Kelm, BSME '85 and MSME '93, was named business unit manager for Hyson Products in Brecksville. He has held various positions with the firm, including director of sales and marketing and acting business unit manager.

Michael Grady, BBA '85 and MBA '94, was inducted into the Alpha Delta Chi Fraternity Hall of Fame.

Gloria Freire, MPA '86, provides management consulting services to small nonprofits and female-owned small businesses as president and owner of GMF Consulting. She also is president of the board of trustees of the Cuyahoga County Public Library System. Dr. Friere's 50-plus year career in social work includes service as a Cleveland State faculty member.

William Haney, BA '86, was inducted into the Alpha Delta Chi Fraternity Hall of Fame.

Mark Spain, BA '86, co-anchors the CBS 6 p.m. news and the Fox 10 p.m. news in Jacksonville, Fla.

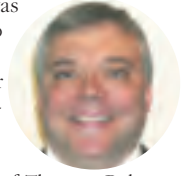

Lucinda Einhouse, MBA '86, is president and chief executive officer of the Beck Center for the Arts in Lakewood. She formerly was director of development at the Cleveland Institute of Music.

Michael Dolan, BS '86, was named executive director of the Ohio Lottery Commission by Gov. Ted Strickland. For the past 10 years, he represented the West Park area as a member of Cleveland City Council.

Regennia Williams, BA Urban Studies '86 and MPA '90, received the Mentor of the Year award from the Ohio Board of Regents-STARS (Student Achievement in Research and Scholarship Program). Dr. Williams is an associate professor of history at CSU.

William C. Engle, BA '86 and BSCE '94, was promoted to senior project manager in the structural engineering department of Thorson Baker & Associates, an engineering services firm based in Richfield, Ohio.

Michael Nagy, BA '86 and MBA '95, is the superintendent of public works — the top city administrator — in Fort Morgan, Colo. He formerly was the city manager of Marine City, Mich.

Pamela George-Merill, MPA '87, is executive director of the Shaker Square Area Development Corporation.

Frank LaManna, BBA '87, is the chief operating officer of Thompson Hine LLP. He formerly was the executive director and chief financial officer of Calfee, Halter & Griswold.

Donn W. Trautner, MED '87, is the principal of Our Savior Lutheran School in Austin, Texas.

Lisa Hagerty, BBA '88, was promoted to senior managing director at Dix & Eaton. She has been with the firm since 1996.

Sharon Scott, MED '88, was appointed to the Willoughby-Eastlake School Board. She has taught for the Lake County Board of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities at Broadmore School in Mentor for 20 years.

Thomas Mach, MA '89, was promoted to professor of history at Cedarville University, where he has been a faculty member since 2000. Dr. Mach lives in Xenia, Ohio.

Mark Haney, BBA '89, was inducted into the Alpha Delta Chi Fraternity Hall of Fame.

Sean Gallagher, JD '89, was recognized by the Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association for his contributions to the community and his profession. He is an Eighth Ohio District Court of Appeals judge.

Debbie Ann Burney Taylor, MA '89, is director of the Women in Engineering Office at the University of Michigan. The Ann Arbor resident received a 2007 SWIMPY "Dream" grant from Case Western Reserve University for a project that will culminate in a jazz-related picture book.

'90s

Cynthia Moore-Hardy, MBA '90, was named a Crain's Cleveland Business Woman of Note for 2007. She is the president and chief executive officer of Lake Hospital System and received a CSU Distinguished Alumni Award in 2005.

Cynthia Salim, BA '90, is the co-owner of RV Spa, a new business in Lorain County that offers storage and service for motor homes. She is an officer of the Erie Shores Allegro Club, which promotes the RV lifestyle. Salim lives in Carlisle Township, Ohio.

Bernard L. Buckner, MPA '90, was appointed as the first executive director of Cleveland State's newly created Department of Campus Safety, which combines the police, fire, safety and security, and environmental health and safety departments into one unit.

James L. Harrold, BSCE '91, was promoted to senior project manager in the structural engineering department of Thorson Baker & Associates, an engineering services firm based in Richfield, Ohio.

Craig Fultin, MBA '91 and DBA '96, joined Cuyahoga Community College as executive vice president for finance and business services. He formerly was the mayor of Lorain, Ohio.

Timothy H. Warneka, MEd '92, is the author of The Way of Leading People: Unlocking Your Integral Leadership Skills with the Tao Te Ching.

Timothy R. McNichols, BA '92, is the publisher for Gainesville, Florida-based Naylor Publications but continues to live in Cleveland. He works with associations and organizations throughout the county to deliver communications tools to their members and industry supporters.

Howard Thompson, MPA '92, was elected to the Cuyahoga Valley Chamber of Commerce. He is president of the Levin College of Urban Affairs Alumni Organization.

Lou Tisler, BBA '92 and MBA '94, was named to Gov. Ted Strickland's Foreclosure Prevention Taskforce. The Rocky River resident is executive director of Neighborhood Housing Services of Greater Cleveland.

Christine Faranda, BBA '92 and JD '96, was named a rising star in the 2007 edition of Ohio Super Lawyers. She is an associate in the Cleveland office of Buckingham, Doolittle & Burroughs, LLP and lives in Lakewood.

Anne Ferlito, MEd '93, was one of 44 teachers nationwide to receive a 2006 Disney Teacher Award recognizing creativity, innovative teaching methods and the ability to inspire students. She teaches second grade at Moreland Hills School in Pepper Pike.

Laurel Dinallo Conrad, MUPDD '93, is director of business development for the Karen Skunta Design Company.

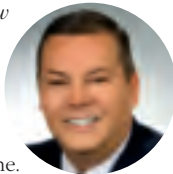

Win Weizer, BA '93 and MPA '97, was appointed to the University Heights City Council.

Allen Guisinger, BS '93 and MS '97, received his MBA from John Carroll University this summer. He lives in Newburgh Heights and works for Saint Gobain Crystals.

Kirstin S. Toth, MPA '94, is a project officer with the GAR Foundation in Akron.

Cindy Petkac, MUPDD '94, is a community philanthropy officer for the Duluth-Superior Area Community Foundation.

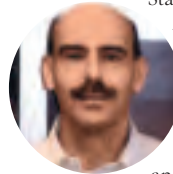

Scott C. Walker, JD '94, joined the Columbus office of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey as litigation senior attorney. The former editor of the Cleveland-Marshall Law Review was named a 2007 rising star by Ohio Super Lawyers magazine. He lives in Pickering.

Ann Billetz, MS '94 and Ph.D. '98, was granted tenure at the Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts, where she has been an assistant professor of biology since 2002.

Lori K. Long, BBA '95, authored her first book, a career-planning guide titled The Parent's Guide to Family Friendly Work. Long lives in Cleveland and is the president of LK Consulting LLC, a human resource management consulting firm.

Ed Bell, MBA '95, was promoted to president of Jet Star Inc. in Zionsville, Ind. He formerly served as vice president of operations and marketing.

Paul Gomez Farrell, MS '95 and Ph.D. '04, is the director of work force development for the Denver, Colo. Office of Economic Development.

Antoine Williams, MEd '96, retired from Ford Motor Company after 30 years as an education and training coordinator. Now a project leader and faculty member for Baker College in Flint, Mich., he manages the school's on-site degree programs at auto manufacturing facilities in Ohio. He lives in Bedford Heights.

Akia Foster-Churn, BA '96, is the senior program officer with the Girl Scouts of Lake Erie Council.

Daisy Alford-Smith, Ph.D. '96, is the chief executive officer of the Girl Scouts of Northeast Ohio.

Anthony Zielinski, MACTM '97, was elected treasurer of the city of Parma in 2005, after serving six years on City Council.

CLASS NOTES

Bennie Neal, MEd '97, teaches social studies and literacy in East Cleveland. The ordained deacon at Fidelity Baptist Church is listed in Who's Who of American Educators.

Jeff Bogan, JD '97, was promoted from senior manager to executive director at Ernst & Young LLP's Phoenix office.

Marcia Lynn Thomas McCoy, BA urban studies '98, is a political/government relations consultant living in Cleveland.

Jeffrey Morris, BSCE '98, was promoted to senior project manager in the structural engineering department of Thorson Baker & Associates, an engineering services firm based in Richfield, Ohio.

Steve Bloom, BA '98, is the acting director of the Tremont West Development Corporation.

Bonnie Erica Horton, MPA '98, is a grants management analyst for the Atlanta, Ga. police department.

Gary Norton, MPA '98, was named one of Cleveland's Most Interesting People by Cleveland Magazine.

Chad E. Dasher, BA '98, is executive director of the Westown Community Development Corporation.

Adrienne Zurub, MA '98, is the author of Notes From the Mothership-The Naked Invisibles.

Paul Weisinger, BBA '98, was promoted to manager at Walthall, Drake & Wallace LLP. The Westlake resident joined the accounting firm in 1999.

Danielle Pitcock, JD '98, joined Sikora Law LLC as an associate.

Linda Seber, BS '98, and Laura Seber, BS '99, were crowned queens of the 2007 Twins Day festival in Twinsburg, Ohio. The identical twins are both physical therapists — Linda with Jaworski Physical Therapy in Elyria and Laura with EMH Center for Health and Fitness in Avon. They live in Sheffield Village.

Beth Schulhof Spyke, MPA '99, is the scholar and curriculum coordinator for the Multidisciplinary Clinical Research Training Program at the Cleveland Clinic.

Carolyn Smith, MPA '99, was selected to attend the National Trust for Historic Preservation's 2007 Leadership Training course. She is a coordinating consultant with the city of Cleveland's Storefront Renovation Program and an active member of the Cleveland Restoration Society.

Christopher Kastner, MBA '99, was appointed vice president of operations at Sybron Dental Specialty Products. He lives in southern California.

Frank L. Gallucci III, JD '00, was named in Northern Ohio Live's 2007 Ohio Rising Stars Super Lawyers. He is a founding partner of Plevin & Gallucci Co, L.P.A. in Cleveland.

Joni Ledinsky, BIE '00, is a production manager at USG Interiors Inc. in Westlake. The firm recently won the highest Star rating for safety from the U.S. Department of Labor's Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

Michael J. Kearns, MBA '00, is chancellor of Mohave Community College, after serving as vice chancellor for instruction. He was in private dental practice for 24 years before joining MCC as founding director of the dental hygiene program.

R.A. Washington, BA '00, is the public programs and outreach manager at the Museum of Contemporary Art Cleveland.

Sharon E. Gregor, MS urban studies '00, wrote and published Forest Hill: The Rockefeller Estate. She lives in East Cleveland.

Erik Janas, MPA '01, is an executive assistant, focusing on intergovernmental affairs and regional development for Columbus Mayor Michael Coleman.

Kevin Hyland, JD '01, joined Boykin Management Company as general counsel.

Karin Scholz Jensen, JD '02, was elected to the board of directors of the Community College of Aurora Foundation. She is a litigation associate in the Denver office of Baker & Hostetler and formerly was a reporter and editor at The Plain Dealer.

Anastasia Valdes, MUPDD '02, is a GIS technician with Stewart International in San Antonio, Texas.

Leon Mason, BA '02, is the director of the South Lorain Lincoln Community Center. Mason received dual degrees in Spanish and international relations.

Martin Keane, JD '02, represents Ward 21 on Cleveland City Council. He is a former assistant county prosecutor.

Julie A. Terry, BA '02, received a law degree from Ohio Northern University's Pettit College of Law this summer.

Judy Mansour-Thomas, MA '03, is executive director of the Greater Cleveland Poets' and Writers' League.

Kathy Berta, BA urban studies '03, received a law degree from The University of Akron School of Law this spring.

Emma Petrie Barcelona, MS urban studies '03, is a grants administrator for the Lakewood Division of Community Development.

James Greene, BA '04, is manager of cartography/GIS/data analysis for the city of Cleveland's Department of Community Development.

Timothy Thomas O'Brien, BA '04, is a consultant with Accenture LLP in Charlotte, N.C.

Renee Nank, Ph.D. '04, is an assistant professor in the College of Public Policy, Department of Public Administration, at the University of Texas at San Antonio.

Gerry Lyons, MBA '04, joined ScanSource Inc. as vice president-corporate controller. He lives in Greenville, S.C.

Brian Straka, BA '05, is the Black River watershed coordinator and an environmental planner for the Lorain County Community Development Department.

Wayne Kehoe, MPA '05, has written his first book, Cleveland's University Circle. He is the education coordinator for the Steamship William G. Mather Museum, a unit of the Great Lakes Science Center.

Aminah Smith, BA '05, served a National Orientation Directors Association summer internship at Nova Southeastern University in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. She is a graduate assistant in CSU's College of Education and Human Services.

Stephanie D. Ashford, BA '05, is a financial analyst with the city of Cleveland.

Felicia Adams, MPA '05, is a volunteer manager at Eliza Bryant Village.

Mason P. Goodman, MPA '05, is a federal investigator/special agent for the U.S. Office of Personnel Management.

Adam M. Freck, MUPDD '05, is an associate with S.B. Friedman & Company in Chicago.

Karen Herpel, MUPDD '05, is a manager of education and training for MAGNET.

Jonathan Oswick, MS urban studies '05, is a project manager for Rysar Properties.

Nicole Stika, MPA '06, is the senior manager for education programs for the Council of Smaller Enterprises (COSE)/Greater Cleveland Partnership.

Rob Kratz, Master of Music '06, is the principal percussionist with the Battle Creek Symphony and teaches music at the Community Music School, a program of the Music Center of South Central Michigan.

Mark McDermott, MUPDD '06, is vice president and central region director for Enterprise Community Partners.

Eric R. Tolle, BA '06, is a planner for the county of Fresno, Calif.

John Brennan, Ph.D '06, is a program manager in the Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs.

Lenaia Burbank, MPA '06, is the membership and group tours coordinator for the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage.

Heather Clayton, MPA '06, is an assistant at the Cleveland Public Library.

Kevin Smith, MUPDD '06, is an associate with Allegro Realty Advisors.

John L. Strok, BA '06, is a GIS coordinator for the Cuyahoga County Auditor's Office.

Matthew Schron, MBA '06, was promoted to general manager of the metalworking division of Jergens Industrial Supply. For the past 14 years, he has been the firm's product manager.

Dawn Hanis Kulikowski, Master of Music '06, is the orchestra director for the Avon Lake city schools. She and her husband, Joseph, Bachelor of Music '99, live in Parma.

Christopher Bongornor, MUPDD '07, is an associate planner with the Department of Planning and Development at University Circle, Inc.

Danielle P. Graham, BA '07, is a billing manager for the city of Cleveland.

Tonia L. Martin, BA urban services administration '07, is a legal assistant in the Department of Health and Human Services' Office of Medicare Hearings and Appeals.

Bradley Shawhan, MPA '07, is a Cleveland Metroparks manager.

Elizabeth A. Stein, MPA '07, is a department director for the Cleveland Clinic.

Erin Aleman, MUPDD '07, was awarded the 2007 Phillip D. Peters Regional Planning Fellowship to work with the Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning.

Vincent M. Tenaglia, MPA '07, is a management analyst with the city of Largo, Fla.

Diambu Smith, MPA '07, is a business development officer with the city of Cleveland's Department of Economic Development. ♦

In Memoriam

Walter Schmidt, BBA '42, in May 2007

Roger Reed, BSCE '47, in January 2004

Robert E. Sweeney, JD '51, in June 2007

Harry Butler, JD '52, in November 2007

Arnold Roth, JD '54, in November 2007

John T. Patton, BBA '55 and JD '58, in May 2007

Roger Hyde, BSCE '59, in April 2007

Russell F. Neff, BSME '61, in April 2007

Dennis H. Sherman, JD '66, in March 2007

Anthony R. Beccia, BSEE '67, in September 2006

Richard Jordan, BBA '67, in July 2007

Allen E. Grotke, JD '73, in August 2007

Donald E. Wilson, BSCE '75 and MSCE '82, in April 2007

Michael Robert Parker, BA '80, in May 2007

Lisa Lynn Maxim Gleske, BBA '81, in August 2007

James T. Bobrowski, BSEE '82, in January 2005

Reid M. Robbins, MS '82, in January 2007

Walid Chahine, BSEE '85, in June 2007

Edward Corrigan, BBA '86 and JD '89, in November 2007

Antonio DiStefano, BA '92, in July 2007

Abdul Qahhar Shahid, MUPDD '98, in November 2007

Christopher Manos, BBA '06, in June 2007

Andrea Szaboics, BSEd '06, in July 2007

Cleveland State Deaths

Ron Haybron in April 2007. An associate professor emeritus of physics, Dr. Haybron retired in 2004. During his 36 years with the University, he served as ombudsman, special projects assistant to the provost, and assistant dean of the former College of Arts and Sciences. For many years, he wrote a science column for The Plain Dealer.

Jean Dobos, MA '82, in August 2007. An associate professor of communication, Dr. Dobos taught at Cleveland State from 1986 to 1999.

Charles (Chas) Smith, Bachelor of Music '91 and Master of Music '93, in October 2007. The music lecturer taught the popular "Roots of Rock and Soul" course and authored From Woodstock to the Moon: The Cultural Evolution of Rock Music and The Soul of Sunrise: Grassroots Music in America.

Preston H. White, BS '82 and MA '00, in October 2007. The coordinator of the Library Computer Learning Center was integral in establishing and maintaining the Adaptive Technology Lab for students with disabilities and the Library Computer Learning Center for training students in computer software use.

David Metz in October 2007. The professor emeritus of audiology joined CSU in 1967 and retired in 1994. He cofounded and chaired the speech and hearing department, served as associate dean of the former College of Arts and Sciences, and directed the Heath Career Opportunities program.

Bill Shorrock in November 2007. A professor emeritus of history, Dr. Shorrock continued to teach part time after retiring in 2005. During his 36 years with CSU, he chaired the history department, and served as special assistant to the interim vice president for academic and student affairs, associate provost, and vice provost for academic affairs and faculty relations.

An active member of the Retired Faculty Association, he was the current president of Cleveland State's Friends of the Library and an executive committee member of the French Colonial Historical Society, an international organization. ♦