

CLEVELAND STATE UNIVERSITY
ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE/FULL PROFESSOR OF STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT

Department: Management and Labor Relations

Position: Assistant/Associate/Full Professor of Strategic Management-Tenure Track, fulltime

Start Date: August 2010

Duties: Teach 15/16 semester hours per academic year at the undergraduate and/or graduate level. Courses include strategic management and, depending on background, experience, and training, entrepreneurship and/or international business. Must be available to teach evening, weekend, distance learning, and off-campus classes. All faculty members are required to pursue research and scholarly activities; contribute to the DBA program; participate in departmental, college, and university service; and advise students.

Qualifications: Minimum: Doctoral candidate in strategic management or a closely related field at the advanced dissertation stage, collegiate teaching experience, and documented evidence of research activity (e.g., recent conference papers, under-review, in-press, published). ABD candidates will be hired as an Instructor until doctoral requirements are completed. Doctorate must be completed by June 30, 2011 or the contract will be terminal.

Preferred: Earned doctorate in strategic management from an AACSB accredited institution, collegiate teaching experience in strategic management at an urban university, demonstrated research and publication activity commensurate with rank sought, and managerial or business experience. Candidates seeking Associate or Full rank must have experience with a doctoral program and significant university and professional service. CSU has the following signature research areas and preference will be given to those who have research in the areas of health, and/or sustainable communities. This position is contingent on maintaining existing levels of funding from the State.

Applications:

1. Cover letter specifically addressing the position qualifications
2. Curriculum vita
3. Evidence of teaching effectiveness
4. Samples of recent research

Letter should also specify rank sought. Applicants may be required to provide a list of graduate courses completed and three letters of reference at the later stages of the search to remain under consideration.

Applications are limited to external candidates with the exception of part-time, term and visiting faculty.

Review begins September 21, 2009 and applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
