Keep Up.....

Want to integrate technology in to your micro lesson? Or perhaps you need additional hands on practice before you hit the field. Educational technology is available for student use in Main Classroom 204, 224, 230, and the Presentation Practice Room located on the 3rd floor of the Michael Schwartz Library. Please note these rooms are subject to availability. Check with your instructor.

If you are looking for assessment tools, ideas, or suggestions the Community Learning Center for Children and Youth (CLC) found in the Main Classroom Room 212, is an excellent place to start. The CLC instructs current and future educators by providing resources and services including assessment and tutoring in literacy and math to children and youth with and without disabilities. The Center also provides opportunities for faculty and students to engage in research.

Need to laminate? Coming soon to the CLC stop by MC 212 in the next few weeks.

Eat Right!

A Farmer's Market is available every Thursday outside the Marshall Law School during lunch hours. Stop by and pick up a quick lunch or ingredients for a dinner or fruit salad.
