“Violence Prevention through Teaching Social Skills in the Classroom”

Dr. Ellen Burts-Cooper

December 2, 2009

8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

The purpose of this workshop is to provide an alternative method of addressing violence and its prevention in the school setting. Participants will raise their level of awareness of violence in our society and its impact on children in the classroom. Educators will be better prepared to respond to the changing educational environment through the infusion of a comprehensive social skills curriculum in the classroom.

Participants will be aware of the causes of violence, how it affects the classroom learning climate, and will have alternative methods to counter the negative influence of violence in the classroom and to prevent the further development of violent behavior in students.

Dr. Burts-Cooper is currently Vice-President, IT Performance Management at National City Bank (PNC). She is responsible for a team of quality analysts and Six Sigma Black Belts and Master Black Belts who develop, monitor and improve IT metric. Her teams are also responsible for leading continuous improvement and business process reengineering efforts for various lines of business.

Cost: GCEDC members $175 and $250 non-members. Includes breakfast beverages, lunch and all materials. Participants will receive a certificate worth 6 contact hours. Confirmation of registration and a campus map will be mailed to you.

Refund/Cancellation: You must cancel 3 business days before the program in order to receive a refund. This program is subject to cancellation only if CSU is closed due to weather or other emergency or due to weather-related or personal emergency of the presenter.

This workshop is contingent upon the number of participants
