

2009-2010 GCEDC Networks Membership

net·work (nĕt'wûrk') n. A group of collaborative professionals who get together to solve common problems, confront issues and concerns, interact or engage in informal communication, and share ideas and solutions with others for mutual assistance or support.

The Greater Cleveland Educational Development Center invites you to join one or more of our Networks. Join a Professional Learning Community to pursue active dialogue to enrich your teaching, learning, leadership and technical skills:

- Global Education for the 21st Century Learner – This network’s emphasis will be on timely topics that enrich a high school practitioner’s impact on their teaching, learning and leadership. The network will focus on the development of the 21st Century skills of communication, collaboration, problem solving and critical thinking. Meeting dates: October 22, 2009 and March 10, 2010 (2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.)
- The Advanced Placement Teacher Support Network - This collaborative and interactive group shares information, resources, instructional strategies, questions, concerns, successes and challenges of AP teaching. Small groups will dialogue in subject area group: Calculus, Physics, Biology, Chemistry, US and European History, Government, and English Language and Literature. Meeting dates: 10/28/09; 12/16/09; and 2/10/10 (4:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.) (Fee: $150 per participant; Group rate: 4 for $500.)
- Literacy Network - Extend your expertise and build the resources that are needed to support students’ literacy growth across grade levels and content areas. Help prepare adolescent students for the increasing literary demands of work, education, and civic participations in the 21st century. Meeting dates: 10/27/09, 12/8/09, 2/23/10 and 4/20/10 (1:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.)
