Advising Center

The College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences

Advising Center implemented a scheduling system in March 2009 that allows CLASS students to schedule online an in-person advising appointment with their general education advisor. The scheduling system can be accessed 24 hours a day, seven days a week, from the CLASS Advising Center's web site www.csuohio.edu/class/advising.

This system allows students to select a convenient time within their own schedule to visit the Advising Center. Students are sent a confirmation reminder email 24 hours prior to their scheduled appointment. Students can also cancel an upcoming appointment and reschedule for a later time if their personal schedule necessitates a change. This helpful system also includes information on the home page about important dates and upcoming deadlines for the current semester.
