

Model UN: Politics and Diplomacy

Cleveland State Model U.N. and N.A.T.O.

Are you a political science, international relations or history major? Or are you interested in public policy, diplomacy, or current events?

Do you like to discuss, research and debate?

Then, CSU Model UN is for you!

- Model UN is a simulation of various UN/NGO/ IGO summits
- Students represent countries, arguing for their “nation’s” policies
- Every major is welcome, as there are diverse topics and issues to be discussed! (e.g. Law World Health, Agriculture, Economics)
- All you need is a desire to research and speak publicly!
- Great experience for students pursuing careers in law, politics, business, or economics
- Opportunities to travel, visit embassies, and meet ambassadors and diplomats!
- Enjoy fellowship and socialization with a diverse group of students from many different disciplines
- Gain valuable experience for the workplace, scholarships or graduate schools
- Improve your research, writing and study skills
- The skills learned in Model UN are used throughout life, what profession doesn’t rely on writing, negotiation, debate and consensus building?
- Come join us. It’s just a model, but who knows? You may be doing it for real!
