

Human Biology in Health & Disease (BIO 106)

Introduction to biological principles. Discussion of cell structure, cell function, and physiology of digestion, circulation, excretion, and coordination in normal and disease states.

May fulfill a Natural Science GenEd requirement. Please see an advisor.