

Technological Change & Schools (ETE 566)

Prerequisite: EDB 601. Focuses on technological change in society and its impact on schools. Emphasizes the effective integration of technology into teaching and learning as change occurs. Students investigate major technologies and create the essential components of a school technology plan.