

Educational Web Design (ETE 568)

Prerequisite: EDB 601. "Programming" in this context means instructing the computer to conduct complex tasks related to instruction. Focuses on the creation and use of complex macros, hypermedia, and intelligent agents. Programming languages, such as Logo and HTML, are addressed, but are not the primary focus.