2008-2009 Graduate Plus Request Form

Things you should know before applying for the Graduate Plus Loan:

- * You must file a 2008-09 year FAFSA and have applied for your annual maximum Stafford subsidized and unsubsidized loan eligibility before applying for the Graduate Plus Loan.
* You must enroll and stay enrolled at least six (6) credit hours per term in a graduate degree seeking program.
* Repayment begins within 60 days of the final disbursement. You may apply for deferment during the in-school period.
* You may apply for the difference between the cost of attendance less other financial aid. Refer to your award letter when deciding the amount you wish to borrow. The cost of attendance is listed on the back of your award letter.
* To be considered for a Graduate Plus Loan you must be creditworthy. You will be subject to a limited credit evaluation the first time you apply and again if the second time you apply is 120 days after the first credit decision or if you have received a previous denial.
* You must sign a Promissory Note for the Grad Plus loan (separate from Stafford subsidized and unsubsidized Loans)
