Summer Aid for degree seeking Undergraduate

Summer semester is considered the last semester of our academic year. Financial aid is based on your remaining eligibility from the 2006/2007 FAFSA results.

Students may use remaining Federal Pell Grant, Federal Stafford Loan and/or Federal PLUS Loan eligibility for summer study. Campus-based aid (SEOG, Federal Work Study), Institutional Grants (University Grant, Residence Hall Grant), and State Grants (OIG, OCOG) are not available summer semester.

Students applying for summer financial aid should finalize their registration by May 9, 2007 (Law students, May 21, 07). Students who have exhausted their Pell Grant and/or Stafford Loan eligibility, may wish to explore alternative loan options. Please visit our alternative loan website www.csuohio.edu/financialaid/loans/alternative.html.

Summer Aid for Graduate and Law Students

Students who will be enrolling in at least six credit hours, may complete this application so that their eligibility can be determined. Graduate and Law Students who enroll for less than six hours may consult our alternative loan website www.csuohio.edu/financialaid/loans/alternative.html for funding options.

Non-degree Graduate students must complete the Non-Degree Graduate Status Verification Form for Summer Semester.

Visiting Students (non-degree, visiting, and transient)

Visiting (non-degree, visiting, and transient) students who are enrolling at CSU this summer are not eligible for CSU administered financial aid, including alternative / private loans. Visiting students should consult their home institution for aid eligibility.

All applicants will receive a determination of financial aid eligibility letter.
