Honors Experience course offerings for Fall 2015:

- HON 101 (sec. 1) - Intro to Honors - M 2:35-3:25 – Instructor: Lehfeldt
- HON 101 (sec. 2) - Intro to Honors - T 10:15-11:05 – Instructor: Lehfeldt

Intro to Honors is required of all incoming lower division freshman Honors students. It replaces ASC 101 – Introduction to University Life for Honors students. Students are introduced to the University and its policies, geography, resources, etc. Aspects of the Honors program are also reviewed. The course also includes brief review of important study skills (note-taking strategies, information literacy) and activities focused on the common reading.

HONORS 200 COURSES: 0 credit

- HON 200 (sec. 1) – Newsletter Writing  - Tue 2:35-3:25 – Instructor: Lloyd
  Students produce a newsletter for the Honors Program. All aspects of the work are done by students; a print newsletter is published at the end of the semester.

- HON 200 (sec. 2) - The Joy of Seeing - Mon 9:10-10:00 - Instructor: Handler
  This course will explore the mysteries inherent in works of art by Velasquez, Picasso, Magritte, Escher and others. Participating actively in a search for meaning in the art, students will pose questions and discuss their reactions. Finally, they will personalize their responses, producing reflective prose and other forms of creative writing. In the process of seeing, thinking, and writing, students will expand their perception, intellect and imagination.

- HON 200 (sec. 4) – Model UN - TBA - Instructor: Staff
  Students volunteer to facilitate High School Model UN activities during the semester. There is no regular meeting time. Students MUST attend a training session to be scheduled once the semester begins and attend and assist with a Model UN event (dates TBA – this may involve missing one or two days of regular classes; excuse notes will be provided).

- HON 200 (sec. 6) - Service Learning - TBA - Instructor: Johnson
  Students must complete at least 20 hours of documented service at pre-selected agencies in the community.

- HON 200 (sec. 7) – Student Journal Editing – TBA - Instructor: Lehfeldt
- HON 200 (sec. 8) – Filmmaking – TBA - Instructor: Lehfeldt

HONORS 201 COURSES: 1 credit

- HON 201 (sec. 1) – Newsletter - Tue 2:35-3:25 – Instructor: Lloyd
  Students produce a newsletter for the Honors Program. All aspects of the work are done by students; a print newsletter is published at the end of the semester.

- HON 201 (sec. 2) – Yoga – Wed 8:05-8:55 -- Instructor: Fondran
  Students are introduced to the philosophy and techniques of Yoga (no experience required).

- HON 200 (sec. 3) - The Joy of Seeing - Mon 9:10-10:00 - Instructor: Handler
  This course will explore the mysteries inherent in works of art by Velasquez, Picasso, Magritte, Escher and others. Participating actively in a search for meaning in the art, students will pose questions and discuss their reactions. Finally, they will personalize their responses, producing reflective prose and other forms of creative writing. In the process of seeing, thinking, and writing, students will expand their perception, intellect and imagination.
- HON 201 (sec. 4) – Sports Appreciation – Wed 1:30-2:20 - Instructor: Motley
  Students participate in a variety of sports activities, including table tennis, pickleball, badminton and other “non-standard” sports.

- HON 201 (sec. 5)- Service Learning- TBA- Instructor: Johnson
  Students must complete at least 20 hours of documented service at pre-selected agencies in the community.

- HON 200 (sec. 7) – Student Journal Editing – TBA - Instructor: Lehfeldt
- HON 200 (sec. 8) – Meditation – TBA - Instructor: TBA