Honors Experience course offerings for Spring 2016:

HONORS 200 COURSES: 0 credit

- HON 200 (sec. 1) – Model UN - TBA - Instructor: Staff
  Students volunteer to facilitate High School Model UN activities during the semester. There is no regular meeting time. Students MUST attend a training session to be scheduled once the semester begins and attend and assist with a Model UN event (dates TBA – this may involve missing one or two days of regular classes; excuse notes will be provided).

- HON 200 (sec. 2) – Reading Group – Mon 2:35-3:25 - Instructor TBA
  Students read and discuss books selected by the instructor and the members of the class.

- HON 200 (sec. 4) – Newsletter Writing- Tue 2:35-3:25 – Instructor: TBA
  Students produce a newsletter for the Honors Program. All aspects of the work are done by students; a print newsletter is published at the end of the semester.

- HON 200 (sec. 5)- International School Volunteer– TBA- TBA
  Students will engage in volunteer activities working with students at the new CSU International School (which serves children in grades K-2). The specific volunteer activities will be determined once the interests and skills of the students registered for the class have been identified. Volunteer activities will occur in the afternoon, after classes at the international school are over (i.e., they will be part of after-school activities at the school).

- HON 200 (sec. 6)- Service Learning- TBA - Instructor: Johnson
  Students must complete at least 20 hours of documented service at pre-selected agencies in the community.

- HON 200 (sec. 7) – Medical Humanities Workshop – TBA - Instructor: Lehfeldt
- HON 200 (sec. 8) – Filmmaking – TBA - Instructor: Lehfeldt
- HON 200 (sec.50) - Film Club – Mon 4:00-6:00 - Instructor: TBA
  Class will meet approximately every two weeks and view a feature film. Films will be selected by the members of the class. The emphasis will be on classic American films and/or foreign films (rather than Hollywood blockbusters of the contemporary era). Students will be required to attend the films and to participate.
