

SEMINAR ANNOUNCEMENT

AN X-RAY ODYSSEY: Applications of X-ray, CT Imaging in Science and Sports

David Zavagno
Universal Medical Systems, Inc.

Abstract: My talk will highlight my journey as a 1976 graduate from Cleveland State University to the world of advanced science and the introduction as well as applications of Computerized Tomography in three fields: Medical Imaging, Petroleum Engineering and to my beloved Indians. A historical look at the technology and its direct applications to issues at the forefront of daily life balanced by a lively presentation on Major League Baseball. A must for any student or professor who purchases gasoline, may need advanced medical imaging, or is a baseball fan.
