

SOCIETY OF PHYSICS STUDENTS (SPS) EVENT

SPS End of the Year Party

(a.k.a. coup-d'etat by the physics majors)

Abstract:

SPS cordially invites you to our End of the Year Party. Come to meet physics majors and minors, SPS officers, as well physics graduate students and faculty. Get introduced to the Society of Physics Students (SPS) – if you have not been yet. Our short program will include: a last word of the outgoing SPS president, Fred Hussein; SPS elections for a new academic year (quiet coup-d'etat by the physics majors); a couple of physics tricks by Jearl Walker – the wizard of the Flying circus of Physics; a raffle of the Flying Circus Physics prizes; and, possibly, some physics demos (including making Liquid Nitrogen Ice Cream) by SPS officers. Surely, a lot of pizza and soda will be provided. Please come and join SPS in this last event of the year!
