

3344-83-01 Preface.

- (A) In order to carry out its mission, the university community shall promulgate and enforce appropriate rules, regulations and policies and take action when violations of such rules, regulations and policies occur.
- (B) Students voluntarily enter into membership in the university community and, in so doing, assume obligations of performance and behavior reasonably expected by that community for the purpose of furthering its mission, objectives, processes and functions.
- (C) Students accept the rights and obligations set forth in this code and other university rules, regulations, and policies when they are admitted to the university. Students are also subject to the laws of the state of Ohio and the regulations, codes of honor, and conduct and academic standards of any unit to which the student belongs.
- (D) The president of the university shall have the final responsibility and authority for the discipline of all students at the university. The president may delegate responsibility and authority to appropriately designated university officials. Duly constituted student judicial bodies and appellate bodies (as defined in the student code) are authorized to conduct student or student organization disciplinary hearings and appeals and to impose university disciplinary action as set forth in this code. Disciplinary action may be taken on the basis of university rules, regulations, policies and procedures enumerated in this code and may include counseling, admonition, sanctions or separation from the university community.
- (E) This code has been approved and adopted by the board of trustees of the university on September 22, 1993, and may be amended at any time by the board of trustees.
