

GRADUATE STUDENT RESOURCE CENTER CLEVELAND STATE UNIVERSITY

Professional & Career Development

Workshops are provided to enhance professional and career development opportunities and promote community-building activities for all Cleveland State University Graduate Students.

Services are provided, free of charge, by the College of Graduate Studies in partnership with CSU service providers and greater community resources.

March 2015 Workshops/Events

March 3rd - Writing at the Master's Degree Level

Learn the basics for writing academic papers and maintaining a formal, academic voice throughout a research paper.

March 3rd - Preparing a Teaching Portfolio for Ph.D. Students

Learn typical components of a teaching portfolio to improve teaching and learning activities for your class.

March 5th - How to Navigate a Career Fair for International Students

Learn best practices for job searching in the U.S. and discuss what to expect at the Career Fair. All graduate and undergraduate international students are encouraged to attend.

March 20th - CSU Career Fair

Meet employers - for students seeking internships, part-time jobs, or full-time professional positions after graduation.

March 23rd - 27th - Dissertation Boot Camp for Ph.D. Students

Join the experts from the Writing Center and Library for structured and unstructured time, all week long, dedicated to finishing your dissertation.

March 25th - Culture Shock Workshop for International Students

Meet friends and learn how to identify and overcome any lingering adjustment issues to make the most of your experience in the U.S.

Visit web site for details: <http://www.csuohio.edu/gsrc>.

E-mail: EngagedGrad@csuohio.edu or call: 216-687-3536