Knoll

Collective and Individual Pursuits

Dividends Horizon® offers continuity between workplace furniture and interior architecture, offering planning opportunities to optimize users' relationships to their work areas and those around them. Designed to embrace organizational change, Dividends Horizon moves the workplace forward both practically and aesthetically, creating a sense of community and structured space.

Rational Space for Shared Work

Dividends Horizon workstations in Beige Mist Metallic paint with 36"-high panels in Knoll Hopsack, Buff; Worksurfaces in Bright White laminate. Generation by Knoll® chairs in Light finish with Desert back and seat in Spinneybeck® Acqua AU655, Flying Dutchman. X-base table in Beige Mist Metallic with top in Bright White; Moment™ side chair in Trivalent Chrome with White back and seat in Utmost, Bisque.

Structured Space

72"-wide credenza, above, in Medium Metallic Grey paint with Bright White laminate top and Medium Teak Techwood sliding door and drawer fronts offers ample storage as well as an impromptu seating area. 48"-wide credenzas in Medium Metallic Grey paint with Bright White laminate top and drawer fronts, far right, create workstation boundaries in a Dividends Horizon benching application.

Multi-Modal Planning

For organizations seeking to simplify the furnishing process, Dividends Horizon offers a full portfolio of easily reconfigurable panel-based and benching options, as well as private office furniture and a full range of meeting and conference tables. Dividends Horizon transforms the workplace with creative, pragmatic planning that responds to today's multi-modal work environment.

Transparency for Individuals and Teams

With strong horizontal lines and a luminous visual presence defined by diverse material options, Dividends Horizon offers depth and character to any workspace. Open Weave screens and frameless add-up screens offer opportunities to plan panel-based or table-oriented, benching workstations with access to natural light.

Linear and Luminous

The artful contrast of structure and materials, left, with 57"-high panels in Medium Teak Techwood, and Open Weave screens in WarpNet, Dark Value Grey, an innovative structural textile by Suzanne Tick.

Design for the Dynamic Workplace

Dividends Horizon's simple frame and tile panel design, in combination with Open Weave fabric screens, supports changing aesthetic and functional needs. The result: a consistent visual language and refined details.

Spatial Energy

42"-high Open Weave Screens in Warpnet, Medium Grey, foreground, offset by the signature Dividends Horizon triangular frame in Bright White. 64"-High panels in Interknit, Gale. Stacking capability offers second tier load bearing; overhead cabinets in Bright White. Illuminating the Interior Landscape

Dividends Horizon offers continuity between furniture and interior architecture, providing broad opportunities to plan workstations with access to natural light. With a focus on optimizing users' relationships to their workstations and those around them, Dividends Horizon creates an exceptionally light and technologically efficient workplace.

Open Weave Screens Plus Three Panel Options

Pragmatic Private Offices

Dividends Horizon incorporates contemporary furniture elements to create efficient, yet classic, private offices. Versatile in scope, Dividends Horizon for the private office is available wall mounted, freestanding, or a combination of the two.

Planning Alternatives

Whether you are planning an office with a peninsula desk and work wall, opposite, a U-shaped desk with storage, above left, or a table desk and credenza, left, Dividends Horizon offers the flexibility and scope to meet virtually any private office need. Offices shown in Bright White laminate, Medium Metallic Grey paint, and Wenge Techwood veneer.

Distinctive Group Spaces

Carefully detailed Dividends Horizon tables enhance the refined aesthetic of the Dividends Horizon workplace. Offering a broad range of sizes, Dividends Horizon tables are available in five heights and shapes, and lengths of up to 144 inches.

Tables for Every Application

Dividends Horizon tables are available in three height ranges: standard 28½"-high meeting tables; 36"- and 42"-high for café applications; and 17" and 21" for lounge areas. Shown, above right, with Moment™ side chairs; right, with Saarinen stools; and facing, with Bertioia barstools.
