

CSU's new Premier Office Supply Agreement

Cleveland State University, as a member of the Ohio Inter-University Council Purchasing Group (IUCPG) has recently bid and *awarded a "Premier" office supply agreement to Guy Brown Express, an Ohio Minority Business Enterprise company and their wholesale partner OfficeMax. This agreement compliments directives by the Governor's office as well as the Board of Regents to reduce redundant costs at the universities and colleges throughout the state of Ohio. The goal of this agreement is to leverage the office supply expenditures for all the Ohio schools so that we can receive the best program available. Furthermore, by consolidating and tracking information moving forward we will be able to gather the appropriate data necessary to continuously receive the best programs possible.

Guy Brown Express, along with their wholesale distributor OfficeMax, has been working with Cleveland State University to develop a personalized office supply program.

Here are some other benefits you can expect:

- Convenient and customized online ordering experience.
- Free next-day departmental delivery.
- No minimum orders
- Discounts up to 70% off of manufacturer's list price.
- Support a relationship with a state certified Minority Business Enterprise (MBE) and Encouraging Diversity and Equity Growth (EDGE) partner.

To sign up, please email michaelbarth@officemax.com to be set up with a sign in and a password. He will need your name, building address, and room number.

We would ask that, in the event Guy Brown Express is unable to obtain some specific items or your requirements are not in stock, that you contact one of our local certified MBE/EDGE office supply dealers:

Boone Enterprises LLC (216-921-2337) or Integrated Business Supply (440-498-3888)
