

Drug & Alcohol Abuse Prevention

Drug and Alcohol Education Program

University Health and Wellness Services sponsors drug and alcohol education programs. The programs provide information for students, faculty and staff about topics concerning health promotion. The programs also encourage students and student organizations to seek out social opportunities in a substance-free environment. However, recognizing that alcohol might sometimes be used, the programs provide information, programming and policies that promote only alcohol use that is responsible, legal and safe. Programming and training focus on topics of alcohol and drug use/abuse, including participation in National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness Week. Resident Assistants are trained to be knowledgeable on topics surrounding alcohol and drug abuse. Information about alcohol and drugs is also included in a brochure that discusses the University’s alcohol policies and procedures.

Beginning Fall 2012, new freshmen students are required to use the eCHECKUP TO GO program which is a personalized, evidence-based online prevention interaction for alcohol.

The Department of Student Life has established an alcohol review committee to review all requests by student organizations to have alcohol at special events. It works with student groups to develop risk management plans for these special events. Staff, faculty and student organizations have been trained in Alcohol Prevention Programs. Additionally, students who have been cited in violation of the Student Conduct Code with regards to alcohol are educated about drug/alcohol use and receive education as part of the sanctioning process.

For additional information about alcohol and drug programs, call 216-687-3649.

Health Risks Associated with Alcohol

Source: U.S. Dept. of Education Publication: What Works: Schools without Drugs (1989 ed.) Alcohol consumption causes a number of marked changes in behavior. Even low doses significantly impair the judgment and coordination required to drive a car safely, increasing the likelihood that the driver will be involved in an accident. Low to moderate doses of alcohol also increase the incidence of a variety of aggressive acts, including spouse and child abuse. Moderate to high doses of alcohol cause marked impairments in higher mental functions, severely altering a person’s ability to learn and remember information. Very high doses cause respiratory depression and death. If combined with other depressants of the central nervous system, much lower doses of alcohol will produce the effects just described.

Repeated use of alcohol can lead to dependence. Sudden cessation of alcohol intake is likely to produce withdrawal symptoms, including severe anxiety, tremors, hallucinations, and convulsions. Alcohol withdrawal can be life-threatening. Long-term consumption of large quantities of alcohol, particularly when combined with poor nutrition, can also lead to permanent damage to vital organs such as the brain and the liver.

Mothers who drink alcohol during pregnancy may give birth to infants with fetal alcohol syndrome. These infants have irreversible physical abnormalities and mental retardation. In addition, research indicates that children of alcoholic parents are at greater risk than other youngsters of becoming alcoholics.

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act) is a federal law that requires colleges and universities to disclose certain timely and annual information about campus crime and security policies. Cleveland State University is committed to keeping the campus and the campus community safe and secure for students, faculty, and staff. An important part of that effort is educating the campus community and future interested persons, about safety awareness and University policies and resources related to safety.

Safety is a shared responsibility. Every community member can contribute to safety and security on campus by reporting crime and suspicious activities in a timely manner. Cleveland State University hopes that this information will be helpful in fostering a safe university environment.

The University complies with the Federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act; the Drug-Free Workplace Act; the Federal Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990, renamed the Jeanne Clery Act in October 1998; the Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act, and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

Cleveland State University is committed to the principle of equal opportunity in employment and education. No person at the university will be denied opportunity for employment or education or be subject to discrimination in any project, program, or activity because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, genetic information, disability, disabled veteran, Vietnam-era veteran or other protected veteran status.

Rape & Sexual Assault Prevention

Procedures To Follow If A Sex Offense Occurs

If you are the victim of a sex offense, preserve evidence. Do not shower, douche, brush your teeth, or change your clothes. You are encouraged to follow the procedures described below:

Seek medical assistance as soon after the incident as possible. It is important to seek medical assistance whether you want to report the sexual assault or not, because there are the possibilities of internal injury, sexually transmitted diseases, and pregnancy.

- 1) Do not shower, douche, brush your teeth, or change your clothes.
- 2) Save any available evidence.
- 3) Go to the emergency room of the nearest hospital or the hospital of your choice.

(If you are on campus, the CSU police will transport you to either St. Vincent Charity Hospital or MetroHealth Medical Center. You will not be required by the CSU police to file a report or press charges, however, the hospital is required to report the rape/sexual assault to the police. You will not be required to pursue criminal action.)

If more than 48 hours have passed, medical assistance can be sought from your personal physician or the CSU Health Services Department.

Call the police. The CSU police can be reached immediately by any of the following means:

- 1) Dial 911 or 216-687-2111,
- 2) Push the button on any campus phone that is identified by the red Police/Fire sticker, or
- 3) Pick up any phone on campus that is identified by a blue light. If the sexual assault took place off campus, call the police department where the incident took place.

In addition, you may call any of the following numbers for assistance and/or support:

- Cleveland Rape Crisis Center Hotline - 216-619-6192 (24 hours a day)
- CSU Counseling Center - extension 2277 or 216-687-2277:
8 a.m. - 5 p.m. Mon. - Fri.
- CSU Health and Wellness Services - extension 3649 or 216-687-3649:
8 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. Mon. - Fri.
Summer hours: 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. Mon. - Fri.
- Your Residence Hall Director
- Someone you trust
- Office of Judicial Affairs 216-687-2048: 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. Mon. - Fri.

Seek emotional support. Contact any of the following:

- CSU Counseling Center - extension 2277 or 216-687-2277:
8 a.m. - 5 p.m. Mon. - Fri.
- Cleveland Rape Crisis Center - 24 Hrs. Hotline: 216-619-6192,
Main Office: 216-619-6194
- A private counselor of your choice. (Referrals to private counselors can be obtained from the Cleveland Rape Crisis Center or the CSU Counseling Center.)
- Religious Resources:
Agapé Lutheran/Episcopal Campus Ministry 216-774-0459.
Hillel 216-231-0040. Newman Catholic Campus Ministry
216-771-3630 ext. 7145.

Seek legal /judicial information. There are differences between reporting a sexual assault and seeking criminal sanctions in a sexual assault. Reporting a sexual assault does not require that criminal action be initiated. For additional information, contact an attorney of your choice or any of the following:

- Cleveland Rape Crisis Center 216-619-6194
- CSU Police - extension 2020 216-687-2020
- Witness/Victim Services Center 216-443-7345
- Office of Judicial Affairs 216-687-2048
- Legal Aid 216-687-1900
- Affirmative Action 216-687-2223

SPECIAL NOTE TO THE UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY: If you are asked for assistance or support by the victim of a sex offense please attempt to have the individual follow the above procedures. In addition, please keep in mind that rape/sexual assault is a crime of power. The individual who has been victimized has had control of her/his physical person taken over by another person. In assisting the victim, care must be taken to allow her/him to make the decisions and choices. But, in allowing her/him to be in control, it is important to ensure that s/he is safe and receives any necessary medical attention. Above all, the identity of the victim should be held in strictest confidence.

Cleveland State University programs and policies provide: (1) education about rape and other sex offenses and their prevention; (2) procedures to follow in the event a rape or other sex offense occurs; and (3) disciplinary procedures and sanctions that may be utilized in the event of rape or other sex offenses.

Education

The responsibility for continuing education about rape and sexual assault and their prevention is assumed by Health and Wellness Services. This includes presentations of educational programs about rape and sexual assault to the University community at large, as well as selected classes and targeted student populations such as athletes, residence hall advisers, and new students. The education program has and will continue to include the campus-wide distribution of information about rape and sexual assault in the form of brochures, flyers, and posters. In addition, professionals in the Department of Student Life, Counseling Center, Health Services, and Police Department are available to meet one-on-one with members of the University community to discuss issues surrounding rape and sexual assault prevention.

Disciplinary actions

Student Conduct Code. The Student Conduct Code addresses rape and other sex offenses under two sections, (1) Infliction, Attempted Infliction or Use or Threat of Use of Physical Force and (2) Unwanted Sexual Contact. Individuals found to be in violation of either of those sections may receive any of the following defined sanctions: Recommendation of Expulsion, Recommendation of Suspension, Disciplinary Probation, Reprimand, Restitution, Restriction, Community Service, Counseling, Holds on Transcripts, or other sanctions deemed appropriate by the hearing body. Copies of the Student Conduct Code are available in the Department of Student Life.

Ohio Revised Code Sections 3345.22 and 3345.23. The Ohio Revised Code specifies that a student, faculty or staff member arrested for any of a series of identified offenses committed on campus or affecting persons or property on campus must be provided a hearing as set forth in the Ohio Revised Code to determine whether s/he shall be immediately suspended from the University pending the individual's acquittal or conviction of the crime. If s/he is convicted, s/he is then dismissed. Included in the list of specified offenses are the following: Felonious Assault, Aggravated Assault, Assault, Rape, and Sexual Battery. Copies of the appropriate sections of the Ohio Revised Code sections are on CSU's Web Page (www.csuohio.edu/offices/police/laws).

Disciplinary Procedures

The Student Conduct Code outlines the procedures for the on-campus disciplinary process. Violations of the Student Conduct Code may be heard by the University Judicial Board, the Student Conduct Officer, or the Judicial Affairs Officer. These proceedings entitle all parties involved to present their case for an impartial review. The Student Conduct Code judicial process provides for the presence of one advisor (member of the University Community) for each party as well as the presentation of witnesses and other materials. The hearings are closed unless otherwise requested and all materials confidential. Per the higher education amendments of 1998, the outcome of hearings involving Infliction, Attempted Infliction, Use or Threat of Use of Physical Force, Sexual Harassment, and Unwanted Sexual Contact will be communicated to the victims. All hearing documents will be kept on file within the Office of Judicial Affairs, Department of Student Life.

Change in Academic or Living Situations

If the individual accused of rape or other sex offense lives in the residence hall and the victim also lives in the residence hall, the victim will have the opportunity to move into other living arrangements that may make her/him feel more safe, provided that such space is available. Procedures and options for changing class schedules, if desired, should be discussed with the appropriate Dean's office.

Drug & Alcohol Abuse Prevention

Cleveland State University is committed to a campus free of unlawful drug and alcohol use. The misuse of alcohol detracts from the mission of higher education and adversely affects the conduct, academic performance and health and safety of students. Alcohol on college campuses is a factor in 40 percent of all academic problems and 28 percent of all dropouts. The following is Cleveland State University's Drug Prevention Program which is being distributed to all CSU students and employees.

Prohibitions

The unlawful possession, use, distribution, manufacture or dispensation of or providing funding for illicit drugs, controlled substances and alcohol or drug related paraphernalia by students and employees on University property or as part of University activities is prohibited.

Disciplinary Sanctions

Sanctions for violations of the above prohibitions will be imposed by the University in accordance with the appropriate University disciplinary procedures.

Specifically, sanctions for employees may include one or more of the following: an oral or written reprimand from the employee's immediate supervisor or department head, a reduction in pay for a definite period of time, suspension with or without pay for a definite or indefinite period of time, participation in and satisfactory completion of a drug or alcohol rehabilitation program, restitution or payment for damages to property, and/or termination from employment. In addition to these sanctions, the University in appropriate cases may refer individuals to the appropriate jurisdiction for criminal prosecution.

Sanctions for students may include one of the following: Expulsion (permanent separation from the University), Suspension from the University for a definite period, Removal from the Residence Hall, Official Reprimand or Restitution, Disciplinary Probation, Temporary or Permanent Loss of Privileges, or Community Service. Counseling, with the added stipulation of completing a drug or alcohol rehabilitation program, can also be applied as a sanction for violations as well as other sanctions provided for in the Student Conduct Code. In addition to sanctioning, the University may refer individuals to the appropriate jurisdiction for criminal prosecution.

Federal trafficking penalties, Ohio criminal penalties, and effects of drug abuse can be viewed at www.csuohio.edu/offices/police/laws.

Parental/Guardian Notification

The Dean of Students will notify the parent(s)/guardians(s) of a student under the age of 21 who has been found in violation of an alcohol or drug provision of the Student Conduct Code. Parent(s)/guardian(s) will be notified by regular and certified mail at the student's permanent address on file in the Registrar's Office.

Drug and Alcohol Counseling

Treatment and Rehabilitation Programs

For Employees. The IMPACT Employee Assistance Plan (EAP) provides confidential counseling and guidance for drug, alcohol, emotional and work related issues for employees and their family members. The EAP provides up to five (5) complimentary counseling sessions per incident each year. Call (800) 227-6007 to arrange an appointment with an IMPACT EAP counselor. IMPACT may refer individuals to agencies, programs or other health professionals for further care. CSU's Employee Health Care Plans provide coverage for both inpatient and outpatient treatment of drug abuse, alcoholism and other mental health conditions.

For Students. The CSU Counseling Center provides referral services and some counseling to students with drug and/or alcohol problems. The Counseling Center is able to provide short-term, outpatient treatment when it is indicated and will refer students to appropriate outside agencies if a different level of care is needed. The Counseling Center is also available to students' friends, family members, and concerned faculty/staff for consultation regarding students' drug/alcohol use. Counseling and consultation services are free at the CSU Counseling Center for students and persons consulting about students. The Counseling Center's records and any contacts with the Counseling Center are confidential (except in some rare and unusual circumstances such as a life-threatening situation). Appointments at the Counseling Center can be arranged by calling 216-687-2277 or by stopping by the Center on the 12th floor of Rhodes Tower in room 1235.

CSU Health and Wellness Services, located in the Science Research Building (suite 153) provides informational, evaluation, and referral services to students and employees which can be accessed by calling 216-687-3649. Health and Wellness Services also hosts an on-campus Alcoholics Anonymous meeting in their conference room every Tuesday and Thursday at 12:15-12:45 p.m.

Emergency Notification, Timely Warning, Missing Student Notification

Crime and Emergency Reporting

All students, employees, and guests are encouraged to promptly report criminal incidents, suspicious activity and other public safety related emergencies and incidents to University Police.

Campus Security Authorities (CSA)

To further encourage the timely reporting of crimes on campus, the Jeanne Clery Act identifies and defines Campus Security Authorities (CSA) as University faculty and staff members with “significant responsibility” for students and campus activities. They are campus officials who manage or otherwise oversee student and campus activities. Some examples of CSA’s include University Police, deans, directors, department heads, athletic coaches, student group advisors and activities coordinators, residential life staff, student center officials, and judicial affairs officials. Crimes reported to CSA’s will be immediately forwarded to the University police. While licensed or certified counselors and/or individuals who are functioning within that scope at the time a crime is reported, is not considered a CSA and not required to report crimes, they are encouraged to review crime reporting options with CSA’s or after consultation with the University’s general counsel.

Emergency Notification

Cleveland State University has developed Emergency Procedure Guidelines for employees, students and visitors that contain extensive information for emergency preparedness. Emergency Notifications will be issued when it has been determined that there is a “significant emergency” or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus.

In the event of an emergency, the University will use one of two emergency notification mechanisms to communicate to the campus without delay. The VENS (Voice Emergency Notification System) has been installed in select campus buildings and can broadcast specific emergency messages to building occupants. Speakers are affixed to the building exterior allows for notification to individuals who are in close proximity. VENS is the primary notification method.

The secondary notification mechanism is CSU ALERT system which is a mass notification system that permits participants to notify by a number of available technologies including cell phone, text messaging, email, or traditional telephone lines. Campus constituents are to register with CSU ALERT by logging into CampusNet at <https://campusnet.csuohio.edu/index.jsp>.

The Dean of Students also maintains an emergency telephone line for use after office hours. Police may use the number to notify the Dean that an emergency has occurred so that, if necessary, students on campus can be notified in a timely manner.

The CSU police are the first responders and first to determine and confirm that the situation is an emergency. This information will be communicated to the President who will consult the President’s Advisory Team and Threat Assessment Team.

Timely Warning

When an emergency occurs, the President’s Advisory Team and the University’s Threat Assessment Team will determine if the emergency requires a timely warning. A timely warning will be issued to the entire campus community if it has been determined that the health, safety, and welfare of entire campus community is at risk, as in the cases of active shooters, epidemics, or other acts of violence in progress or any other crime that is a Clery Act crime.

In cases of isolated situations, a warning will be issued to the residents or occupants in the specific location if it does not impact other areas of the campus.

Daily Crime Log

The University Police issue a daily University Police bulletin that list all the activities reported to the police. These reports are sent to the Dean of Students, Judicial Affairs Officer, Director of Housing and members of the President’s Advisory Team. Copies of the bulletin are also maintained in the CSU police department and are available for view.

Emergency Response and Evacuation Policy

Purpose:

To set forth the Cleveland State University policy with regard to emergency response and evacuation procedures as required by the Higher Education Act of 2008.

Policy Statement:

1. If a member of the University’s senior administrative staff, or such member’s designee, is advised of a confirmed significant emergency or dangerous situation that presents an immediate threat to the health or safety of University students and/or staff in or on any property owned, maintained, or otherwise used by the University in support of, or related to, the University’s educational mission or purpose, the senior administrative staff member, or member’s designee, shall without delay, authorize the forwarding of an immediate advisory to the University community: however, such notification may be delayed, for only that period warranted, if there is a professional law enforcement determination that immediately issuing such a notice would put the University community at a greater risk.
2. The above advisory notification shall be forwarded using all or as many of the primary or secondary systems used or maintained by the University for disseminating communications as widely possible, or appropriate, given the circumstances: i.e., the CSU Voice Emergency Notification System, the CSU ALERT System, the University website, campus message boards, email systems, and video source feeds.
3. University emergency response and evacuation procedures shall be publicized on an annual basis in a manner designed to reach students and staff.
4. University emergency notification and evacuation procedures shall be tested at least once annually.

Missing Student Notification Policy

Students residing in campus housing will be informed annually that each student has the option to identify a person designated as a confidential contact to be notified by the CSU police not later than twenty-four (24) hours after the time that student is determined to be missing by the University official designated to make that determination. A confidential contact is a person designated by the student in addition to the emergency contact listed with the University Registrar. Should the student not formally declare a separate missing person contact, the emergency contact on the record will be notified.

For students under the age of 18 and not emancipated, CSU still allows a separate person to be designated for missing person notification. However, CSU, in keeping with the Higher Education Opportunity Act, will notify the custodial parent no later than 24 hours after the time the student has been reported missing.

For purposes of this policy, a student shall be deemed to be missing when he or she is absent from campus residence for 24 hours or more. All incidents of a missing student shall be reported to the CSU Police Department without delay.

Annual notification of this policy is made directly to all students residing in campus housing.

Safety Awareness

University Police

In the educational environment of which it is an integral part, the University Police Department's mission is to preserve the peace and protect life and property in a manner which is sensitive to the rights of the individual and the values of a university.

The University Police Department is a duly recognized law enforcement agency with full police authority and responsibility as set forth in Ohio Revised Code 2935.01 and 3345.04. It is located in the Campus Safety Building, 1840 Chester Avenue, and provides community access 365 days a year, 24 hours a day. All criminal complaints and emergencies reported to the Department are immediately investigated and a police report is initiated. The 22 sworn police officers are commissioned by the State of Ohio with the same police powers as a municipal police officer within the jurisdiction of the University including the power of arrest. This jurisdiction includes any property owned, operated, leased, or controlled by Cleveland State University. Certain other geographical areas within the City of Cleveland and also fall within the jurisdiction of the University Police Department due to agreements regarding police services with the City of Cleveland, the Greater Cleveland Regional Transit Authority, and the Cleveland Metropolitan School District.

University Law Enforcement Officer applicants undergo a rigorous physical and psychological testing procedure in addition to a thorough background investigation. Each officer meets or exceeds the training standards of the Ohio Peace Officers Training Council and receives annual in-service training in first aid, firearms, defensive tactics, legal updates, fire safety and other appropriate areas.

The department is linked via a computer network to other local, state and national law enforcement agencies for the exchange of information that is vital to the operation of a police department. These computer networks include The Law Enforcement Automated Data System (LEADS), a statewide information storage and retrieval system, and The National Crime Information Center (NCIC) in Washington, D.C.

Community Police Response Programs

The University Police Department shares the responsibility for your personal safety and the protection of personal and university property with you. The Department works to prevent crime by utilizing procedures that ensure high visibility through vehicular and foot patrol, surveillance operations, and through community-based crime prevention and safety awareness programming. Crime prevention programming is the responsibility of the Community Police Response Unit of the University Police Department. In 1992, it was cited as the Outstanding Crime Prevention Unit in the State of Ohio by the Ohio Crime Prevention Association.

Cleveland State University has entered into certain agreements concerning the coordination of policing services with the City of Cleveland, Greater Cleveland Regional Transit Authority, and certain of the other state supported universities in Ohio. The agreements with the former two entities contain provisions concerning the investigative responsibilities of certain crimes.

Members of the community are involved in the following crime prevention programs on campus:

Campus Watch is the staff/faculty-based crime prevention program. Founded in 1981, it is an innovative application of the highly successful block watch program specifically tailored to meet the needs of this urban University. Members of the campus community participate in Campus Watch through quarterly meetings, the publication of a bi-monthly newsletter which includes a listing of crimes reported during that time period, an emergency phone network, and a list of comprehensive training sessions. The emergency phone network or campus telephone chain is initiated whenever a serious crime has occurred on campus and informs the campus community of the incident within an hour of its initiation. CSU's Campus Watch has been featured in national and international journals and magazines as a model of campus crime prevention programming . It was recognized by the Ohio Crime Prevention Association as the Outstanding Program of the Year in 1984.

The Safety Escort Service of the Cleveland State University Police Department provides a safety escort service Monday through Friday between the hours of 5:30 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. During these times a student community service officer escorts students to or from any location on or near campus. At other times, police officers can usually provide this service. An escort request can be made by dialing 2020 from any campus phone or by using any blue light phone.

Building Security

All University buildings are posted with the open hours on the entrance doors. Generally, buildings are open from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday - Saturday and are closed Sunday. Specific areas, such as the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, have extended hours as needs dictate. When buildings are locked, only authorized personnel are granted access.

Fenn Tower/Euclid Commons/Residence Halls

The residence halls have controlled access through an electronic building security system which utilizes magnetically locked perimeter doors that are released automatically in the event of a fire. The main doors, which are monitored 24 hours a day by student personnel, are the only means of entrance and egress. Access to the Hall is restricted to student occupants, escorted guests, and authorized personnel.

Information Regarding Sex Offenders

Information regarding sex offenders in the Cleveland State area can be obtained from the Cleveland State University Police Department or the Cuyahoga County Sheriff's Department. Photographs can be viewed at the Cuyahoga County Sheriff's Department's website at www.sheriff.cuyahogacounty.us

Crime and Emergency Reporting

Emergency Blue Light Phones have been strategically placed throughout the exterior areas of the campus and in the parking facilities. Upon picking up the receiver on most of these phones, you will be in immediate contact with a dispatcher in the University Police Department. Each time a Blue Light Phone is activated, a police officer is sent to investigate. These phones can be used to request a safety escort or to report a crime or medical emergency. To report a crime or other emergency inside one of the University buildings, either press the POLICE / FIRE speed dial button on a phone or dial 911.
