STATE OF OHIO
HAZING STATUTES

(AMENDED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 444)
AN ACT

To enact sections 2307.31 of the Revised Code to make hazing a crime, to authorize civil actions for hazing, and to limit the defenses available in such actions.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. That sections 2307.44 and 2903.31 of the Revised Code be enacted to read as follows:

Sect. 2307.44 Any person who is subjected to hazing, as defined in Division (A) of Section 2903.31 of the Revised Code, may commence a civil action for injury or damages, including mental and physical pain and suffering, that result from the hazing. The action may be brought against any participants in the hazing, any organization whose local or national directors, trustees, or officers authorized, requested, commanded, or tolerated the hazing, and any local or national director, trustee, or officer of the organization who authorized, requested, commanded, or tolerated the hazing. If the hazing involves students in a primary, secondary, or post-secondary school, university, college, or any other educational institution who knew or reasonably should have known of the hazing and who did not make reasonable attempts to prevent it and against the school, university, college, or other educational institution. If an administrator, employee, or faculty member is found liable in a civil action for hazing, then notwithstanding Chapter 2743 of the Revised Code, the school, university, college, or other educational institution that employed the administrator, employee, or faculty member may also be held liable.

The negligence or consent of the plaintiff or any assumption of the risk by the plaintiff is not a defense to an action brought pursuant to this section. In an action against a school, university, college, or other educational institution, it is an affirmative defense that the school, university, college or other institution was actively enforcing a policy against hazing at the time the cause of action arose.

Sec. 2903.31

(A) As used in this section "Hazing" means doing any act or coercing another, including the victim, to do any act of initiation into any student or other organization that causes or creates a substantial risk of causing mental or physical harm to any person.

(B) (1) No person shall recklessly participate in the hazing of another.

(2) No administrator, employee, or faculty member of any primary, secondary, or post-secondary school or of any other educational institution, public or private, shall recklessly permit the hazing of any person.

Agreement

I have read and understand the State statutes and the University regulations on hazing. I have informed the members and pledges/associate members of the organization of the contents of the State statute and the University regulations concerning hazing. All activities sponsored or required by our organization are and will continue to be in conformance with Section 2307.44 and 2903.31 of the Ohio Revised Code.
