Whether you were last on campus a few months ago, or 50 years ago, there’s no better time to return than this year’s Homecoming. The campus will be abuzz with activity the entire weekend as we celebrate our milestone 50th Anniversary.

In this publication, you will find current information about programs planned throughout the weekend. Register for events and check www.csuohio.edu/50/homecoming for the latest details as events are added regularly and locations change due to increasing confirmations. A variety of student activities are also planned during the week that alumni are invited to attend as well.

Free parking is available on campus for Homecoming after 1 p.m. on Friday through Saturday.
HOMECOMING is about you
HOMECOMING is for you HOMECOMING is . . .

A TIME FOR ALUMNI, FAMILIES AND FRIENDS
to return to campus and explore all that’s new
at CSU, while reconnecting with faculty, classmates and friends.

EXPERIENCING CSU BEHIND THE SCENES
through our new Backstage Passes/Tours.

OUTSTANDING CONTEMPORARY CLASSES
showcasing exceptional faculty — without tuition bills, homework, or quizzes.

A TIME TO SHOW OFF CAMPUS TO YOUR KIDS.
Perhaps future Vikings are in your very own household.

REUNIONS, REUNIONS, AND MORE REUNIONS.
Attend a class reunion, or create your own reunion.
Gather up the old gang (student org, team, fraternity/sorority, etc.) and we’ll do the heavy lifting to customize a reunion for you and your friends to fully enjoy. Contact 216-687-5045 for details.

MARCHING IN THE “PARADE OF THE DECADES”
as part of the Homecoming Parade. This is your turn to “be the float” with former classmates, neighbors, and CSU friends. We promise a short (but memorable) march. Contact 216-687-5045
for details.

A CELEBRATION OF EXTRAORDINARY ALUMNI
being recognized as the Distinguished Alumni Awards recipients and a time to celebrate our proud past and unlimited future.
