Oatey (www.oatey.com) is the choice of plumbing professionals for one simple reason - our products give you the confidence to do the job right the first time, every time.

Nearly 1000 Oatey associates stand behind each product, continually improving them to exceed your application demands. Their tireless efforts have made Oatey the brand you've trusted for nearly a century. Their dedication will be the reason why that continues for many years to come.

No matter what your strength, you will find a great home within Oatey. We're always looking for dynamic professionals to further our vision and help us achieve our goals. We'll take your personal growth and development seriously as we embrace diversity and personal development.

Our Chemist position supports Research and Development programs to develop products and process technologies or enhance current products to support the achievement of the company’s business strategies and objectives. The position is open due to a retirement. If you are interested in learning more please send your resume to afontecchio@oatey.com

Primary Duties and Responsibilities

- Performs research and development activities in support of product development
- Participates in the assessment of new product ideas by collaborating projects with the Marketing department.
- Supports the evaluation of competitive products
- Provides technical support to sales, manufacturing, purchasing, quality, and customer service.
- Stays abreast to new developments in related industries and changes in regulations
- Serves as a liaison with external vendors and consultants on procurement of research and development services and materials
- Assures compliance with all related safety and environmental regulations.
- Other duties as assigned

Required Knowledge and Experience

- Experience in chemical product research and development
- Good understanding of organic, inorganic, polymer, and analytical chemistry
- Some experience in chemical formulation and a good knowledge of chemical interaction
- Computer proficiency and other related technical applications
- Good communication, writing, and presentation skills

Preferred Qualifications

- Wet chemistry and Analytical chemistry skills
- 3-5 years industrial experience
- Knowledge of plumbing systems

Education

Bachelors Degree

Alexandria Fontecchio
Recruiter
Oatey Co.
440-655-5427
afontecchio@oatey.com
www.oatey.com/careers