This 5-day business leadership camp for students ages 11-13 (5th-6th grade students), guides participants through a series of both interactive and individual exploratory activities, teaching them about the various aspects of entrepreneurship, what it takes to succeed as an entrepreneur at any age, as well as some critical steps necessary to evolve their own ideas from infancy into viable pitch-worthy business concepts.

Program Learning Objectives:

- To teach student participants the meaning of entrepreneurship and how to develop businesses out of their innovative ideas
- To coach student participants on the identification and development of the core skills, habits, and practices of successful leadership.
- To educate student participants about the internal and external academic resources that can be used to help them in their entrepreneurial journey.
- To expose student participants to real-world youth entrepreneur success stories
- To teach student participants all aspects of a comprehensive business plan, with an emphasis on providing education around Sales, Marketing, Finance, and Operational disciplines.
- To guide students through the process of drafting a high level comprehensive business plan.
- To support students on the development of business pitch presentations.
