Breakthrough Schools, the highest-rated network of public charter schools in Cleveland, is reinvigorating the city's educational system. We looking for teachers, leaders, and support staff committed to urban education to join our growing network. We offer students, teachers, and leaders four distinct educational approaches to work and thrive in: Citizens, Intergenerational, Preparatory, and Expeditionary.

We invite you to our upcoming recruitment events! Each event provides you a chance to meeting school leaders who are looking for talented educators to join their team. You are encouraged to register for our events by clicking the links below!

During our Open Houses, you will learn about our unique educational models by experiencing a school in action. You will meet with school leaders, observe classrooms, and participate in Meet & Greets with hiring administration. All open houses take place from 8:30am-10:30am on the days designated below.
