

Math Club & SPS

Joint Meeting

Convolutions Are Smoothing Operators

Dr. Pratihba Ghatage, professor emeritus,
Department of Mathematics, CSU

Abstract: The mathematical operation of convolving two functions has surprising applications to signal processing. We will discuss what convolutions are and how they give rise to a smooth basis of functions from a linear algebra point of view.

Thursday, April 26, 2018

SR 151, 11:30—12:30

Pizza and drinks provided