

SOCIETY OF PHYSICS STUDENTS (SPS) EVENT

Get a Scoop of LN₂ Ice Cream at the SPS
End of the Year Party!

Abstract:

Come join the Society of Physics Students (SPS) in our fantastic end of the year party! Not only will you enjoy great company and great food, but you could participate in the end of the year physics competition and learn how physicists have fun. The program is highlighted by the traditional making of Liquid Nitrogen Ice Cream by your SPS officers! Also planned are a few announcements from SPS officers, 2010-2011 SPS officer elections, discussion of summer work opportunities at the Physics Department, and of course some raffle prizes! Surely, a lot of pizza, pop, and food for thought will be provided. Please come and join SPS for this last event of the school year!
