League of Women Voters CSU Chapter (SGA)

The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan political organization that encourages the informed and active participation of citizens in government and influences public policy through education and advocacy. The League was founded nearly 100 years ago by suffragettes to empower women voters who won the right to vote with the passage of the 19th Amendment. Rather than advocating for candidates or promoting partisan positions, the League works to promote bipartisan reform that empowers all citizens, hold government bodies accountable through observation and education, and promote citizen participation. Recently, the League successfully lobbied for redistricting reform to end gerrymandering in Ohio and promoted youth registration throughout Greater Cleveland.

The League is made up of men and women dedicated to promoting civil conversations and engagement, and finding common ground. Holding an officer position helps you build leadership skills, looks great on a resume and gives you the opportunity to network with over 500 members in the Greater Cleveland area, Ohio and the United States.

Student Parent Alliance (SBA)

Student Parent Alliance (SPA) has a twofold mission of aiding current parenting students in law school and making law school more accessible for future parenting students. This mission is carried out by diagnosing the issues that current parenting students face that are in need of immediate attention. Once challenges faced by parenting students are recognized, solutions can be proposed and carried out. SPA aims to connect parenting students with resources that they otherwise would not have recognized, as university support is sometimes difficult to locate. SPA also aims to show prospective Cleveland-Marshall parenting students that they will have the support and resources they need to enter law school while raising a family. Awareness is key in facilitating recruitment of new parenting students for the law school. The more visibility current parenting students have at Cleveland-Marshall, the more likely it is that future parenting students will feel comfortable registering for classes. SPA wants parenting students of all walks of life to know that they are seen and supported.
