

3344-11-11 Consulting and other extramural employment (non-bargaining unit members only).

(C) Before performing activities described in paragraphs (A)(2) and (A)(3) of this rule, the faculty member shall obtain the written approval of the faculty member's supervisor; such approval shall not be unreasonably denied. In no event shall the faculty member accept a regular salary or annual retainer for counsel or services without the written consent of their supervisor.

(F) The faculty member's supervisor shall be kept informed in writing of the extramural employment of full-time faculty members. Faculty shall submit a report of such activities, indicating the number of hours and for whom the work was performed, to the supervisor in the spring semester of each academic year. Consulting activities should make a contribution to the enrichment of the teaching and/or research competence of the faculty member.
