- D. Roommates have equal and equitable rights to shared spaces (e.g. living room, kitchen, bathrooms) within assigned rooms.

8. Occupancy.

- E. The Resident agrees to not remove furniture or fixtures from the assigned room or suite without prior written authorization from Residence Life.

14. Room Entry and Inspections.

- A. The Resident agrees to and authorizes entry with reasonable notification to perform maintenance, to make inspections, to inventory and/or reclaim property, to address health and safety issues, to resolve unsafe or unsanitary conditions, to investigate violations of the CSU Student Conduct Code or Residence Life Policies and Procedures, to verify occupancy, and for any emergency situation. Reasonable notice is not required in emergency or exigent situations.
- B. The Resident acknowledges that entry and inspection by Residence Life, University, or law enforcement officials for discovering violations of university rules, regulations, policies and procedures, or local, state, or federal law shall be in accordance with University policy and/or local, state and federal law, as applicable.
- C. A resident's request for maintenance will constitute authorization to enter the Resident's Housing.

- A. The Resident will have the nonexclusive, revocable right to make normal use of the common areas of the residential community in which the Resident's Housing is assigned.
- B. The Resident agrees to treat all public areas in the assigned residential community and to use the equipment located in public areas in an appropriate manner. 16. Behavior and Conduct/Resident Responsibilities.

- A. The Resident agrees to review and observe the CSU Student Code of Conduct, the Resident Handbook, and this Agreement.
 - i. When a violation or alleged violation of these regulations occurs, the Resident agrees to appear before the proper judicial body and/or Residence Life depending on the nature of the alleged violation.

- B. The Resident agrees to conduct themselves in such a manner as to allow others the quiet enjoyment of the residential communities. The Resident agrees to abide by the laws of the State of Ohio and to avoid causing excessive noise and/or disruptive behavior and understands that they may be required to provide and use earphones or to remove stereos or musical instruments from the room if the use of such equipment causes a disturbance.
- C. Residence Life reserves the right to amend or modify the Resident Handbook and the University reserves the right to amend or modify the CSU Student Code of Conduct as deemed necessary by Residence Life and/or the University during the Term. University shall endeavor to provide Residents standard notice of any mid-year change(s).

17. Reassignment.

- A. Housing may be subject to reassignment by Residence Life at any time. Residence Life may alter the Resident's Housing for reasons including, but not limited to, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) accommodations, disciplinary reasons, catastrophe, epidemic or outbreak of infectious disease, renovation or closing of a facility, consolidation of vacancies, unavailability of space, unresolvable incompatibility of roommates, unpaid housing or dining fees, facility maintenance, or at the request of the Resident.

18. Fees and Payments

- A. Room rates are determined by the room type of the Resident's room assignment and are available on the Department of Residence Life and Housing website.
- B. You agree to pay the costs for housing accommodations and services in full and in accordance with the schedule determined by the University. A reoccurring late fee of $100/month may be assessed each and every month until paid for accounts not paid in full by the due date.
- C. The Office of Treasury Services offers a Budget Payment Plan (BPP) and should be contacted directly to establish such a plan. Enrollment in a BPP does not relieve the obligation of timely payment of all amounts due before the Resident can occupy a room.
- D. Residence Life reserves the right to deny, suspend or revoke housing eligibility, or cancel this Agreement for failure to make payments in a timely manner, including BPP payments.
- E. You agree that failure to make payments required by the Agreement does not relieve You of Agreement obligations and You understand and agree that nonpayment may result in removal from University Housing and may impact your ability to enter into a subsequent Housing Agreement. Further, Residence Life may, subject to applicable law and University policy, seek the University's support in cancellation of current student enrollment, and/or denial of subsequent University registration and/or release of transcripts until the amounts due are paid.
- F. Subject to applicable law and University policy, You acknowledge that rates for housing are subject to change annually at the start of a new academic year.

19. Insurance

- A. Residence Life and the University do not assume any responsibility for any property of the Resident, from any cause, nor will Residence Life or the University assume responsibility for any injury or damages, personal or property during or after the Term.
- B. You are strongly encouraged to consider carrying personal property and liability insurance if your family's policy does not cover Your property while it is located in Housing.
- C. CSU requires that all students purchase Student Health Insurance or provide proof of other medical insurance.
 - i. You understand and agree that medical insurance for the Resident is Your responsibility, and You further understand and agree that neither Residence Life nor the University provides medical insurance as part of this Agreement. In case of emergency, accident, illness, or other incapacity, You give permission to treatment of the Resident by a medical professional including admittance to a hospital, if necessary, and You assume responsibility for all medical and emergency expenses incurred on the Resident's behalf regardless of whether the Resident explicitly authorizes.
 - ii. The Resident must provide proof of health insurance coverage in effect during all periods residing in campus residential communities. Proof of health insurance must be provided in order to obtain access to Your residence hall. No student will be allowed to live on campus without having insurance on file with CSU.

20. Meal Plans

- A. All Residents in university housing are required to select and participate in one of the residential meal plans. You agree that the obligation to participate in a meal plan is binding for the entire term of this Agreement.
- B. Residence Life reserves the right to assign the standard residential meal plan applicable for any Resident who does not have a meal plan Agreement in place prior to their move-in date. In such a circumstance, You shall be fully responsible for all related fees.

21. Cancellation Provisions. The Agreement is binding for the entire academic year or portion thereof if entered into after the beginning of the academic year. To officially request a cancellation, You must submit a written request for cancellation via The Housing Self-Service Portal that includes third-party supporting documentation of one of the reasons listed within this section. Following submission of the request, the student must continue to make payments due under this Agreement unless and until You receive written notice of approved cancellation and follow the instructions within the notice. Submission of an Agreement Cancellation Request does not guarantee approval. Each request will be reviewed by Residence Life and considered on its merit.

A. Cancellation by the Student.

- i. Any cancellation of an Agreement must be processed through Residence Life. To request a cancellation, You will submit the request with supporting documentation and Residence Life will review the request on a case-by-case basis to determine eligibility. The following are reasons for which the Agreement may be cancelled, subject to the submission of proper documentation and the approval of Residence Life:
 - a. The existence of a documented injury, illness, or medical condition that occurs after the Agreement was signed which cannot be accommodated within the residence hall system or that necessitates withdrawal from the University.
 - b. Induction into the military service or military absences that necessitate a change in residence.
 - c. Internships, practicum, or study abroad requirements that necessitate residence away from campus, if the Resident will not return to housing during the remainder of the Agreement Term.
 - d. The existence of an extenuating circumstance or demonstrated need, including drastic reduction in financial resources following execution of the Agreement, severe health problems, and other exceptional changes in the Resident's status.

- ii. A change in status with the University, including withdrawal or leaves of absence, shall prompt an automatic cancellation.
 - iii. Any occurrence that prevents the University temporarily from rendering full performance under this Agreement, such as war, fire, flood, or other disasters, pandemic, epidemic, order or act of a governmental authority, state of emergency and/or strike or work stoppage, whether by University or other employees, shall not constitute grounds for cancellation of this Agreement by the Student.
 - iv. In the event of an approved Agreement cancellation prior to occupancy, that is initiated by You, a full refund of all housing charges, less the corresponding cancellation fee will be issued. An approved cancellation after occupancy will result in prorated charge according to the below schedule. A $200 Agreement cancellation fee applies to all cancelled Agreements approved before the designated dates below; thereafter, the cancellation fee increases to $500.
 - a. Fall Semester Designated Dates:
 - New Applicants: June 1.
 - Returning Students: July 1.
 - b. Spring Semester Designated Dates for New Applicants and Returning Students: January 1.
 - v. Refund schedule after occupancy: Residents are responsible for their Agreement; however, if cancellation is approved by Residence Life, the following refund schedule will be followed based on the date the resident officially checks out of housing, having fulfilled all separation requirements including the return of keys:
 - Week 1- 90% refund
 - Week 2- 80% refund
 - Week 3- 60% refund
 - Week 4- 40% refund
 - After week 4- no refund
 - vi. The Resident's non-occupancy of the Housing does not terminate the Agreement. If Resident remains enrolled at CSU and moves out of Housing during the Term of the Agreement without written approval from Residence Life, they shall continue to be liable for all housing fees.
- B. Termination by the University. Residence Life may terminate this Agreement for an Event of Default. An Event of Default occurs if You fail to comply with any term or condition of this Agreement, or the Resident violates or fails to comply with University policy (each an “Event of Default”). If this Agreement is terminated by Residence Life for an Event of Default, you shall remain obligated to pay the remaining room and board fees for the semester in which the termination occurs. Students who violate the terms of the Agreement may be referred to the University conduct system. Without limiting the preceding, the University may terminate the Agreement prior to the expiration date for the following reasons:
- a. Academic or disciplinary separation from the University
 - b. Disciplinary removal from University Housing
- C. In the case of an Agreement cancellation or termination at any time during the Agreement Term, the Resident must officially remove all belongings, turn in room key, and properly check-out within 48 hours of notification. You will continue to accrue daily housing charges until the move-out/check-out process is completed.
- D. Failure to return a key or fob will result a re-core or replacement charge.
- E. The University reserves the right to make needed repairs and renovations to Housing. If such work will render accommodations uninhabitable, and Residence Life cannot furnish other accommodations, the Agreement shall terminate, and a prorated portion of the Room and Board Fees already paid for the remainder of the Agreement Term will be applied to the student's account.
- F. You are strongly advised not to sign an off-campus housing lease until You have been formally notified of a release from this Agreement. Signing an off-campus housing lease does not serve as a reason for Agreement cancellation approval and You will still be responsible for housing charges per this Agreement.
- 22. Refunds. Any refund of housing fees will be based upon the date the Resident completes the published check-out procedures and University's published refund schedule and will be credited to the Resident's student account. The availability of funds credited to the Resident's student account will be impacted by any other charges due to the University at that time.
- 23. Governing Law; Venue. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Ohio, regardless of the place of execution. Any legal action arising pursuant to this Agreement shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Ohio.

24. Reservation of Rights. The rights and remedies of University set forth herein are in addition to all other rights and remedies allowed under law and equity. By signing the Agreement, You agree to be bound by all the terms and conditions stated herein and adhere to written policies and procedures of University.
25. Acts of God. If either party is prevented from, or delayed in, completing performance of any or all of its obligations under the Agreement (other than payment of rent and fees) by an act of God or any other occurrence beyond the party's control, the party will be excused from performance for as long as it is reasonably necessary to complete performance.
26. Waiver. No waiver of any default in the performance of the Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by the waiving party. The waiver of a particular default in the performance of the Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any other or subsequent default. The resort to a particular remedy upon a default shall not constitute a waiver of any other available remedies.
27. Severability. If any provision of the Agreement is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of the Agreement shall not be affected and shall remain in effect.
28. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire Agreement between Residence Life and You and supersedes any and all prior agreements or representations between the parties pertaining to the same subject matter. Subject to applicable law and University policy, Residence Life may, in its discretion, increase the rent or otherwise alter the terms and conditions of the Agreement effective upon the commencement of any renewal term.
29. Notices. All University notices related to this Agreement and Your housing privileges will be sent electronically to your CSU email address. Please notify Residence Life immediately in writing if your email address changes.
