UNDERSTANDING THE RECORDS RETENTION SCHEDULE

Definitions of words listed in the DISPOSITION column of the retention schedule

The disposition will either be “destroy” or archive.

Review for continuing historical value and potential transfer to university archives - records are to be reviewed and a determination made by the area if records qualify for forwarding to the university archives. If assistance is needed in determining if records have historical value, contact the university archivist for assistance. Final disposition will be made by the Archivist. Those records determined to not have historical value may be destroyed after proper approvals.

Archives

Documents with historical value may be transferred to the university archives. This is identified in the disposition section of the schedule. Contact the university archivist for instruction. Complete the Transfer to Archives Certificate located in the online program manual. Prepare an index of documents contained in the boxes. Send a copy of the index to the archivist and keep one for your files.

Permanent

The continued preservation of information or other matter without any limit in time. Records with a disposition of permanent and not eligible for transfer to the archives are to be stored by the department.

Gifts

Gifts are classified into two categories: current gifts and deferred gifts. Gifts are considered current when the donors completely and irrevocably relinquish any and all interest they have in something, such as transferring real estate, presenting a check, or giving stock. Gifts are considered deferred when the donors transfer property to an institution but retain the property for a specific period of time.
