

Cleveland State University

DAVID M. REYNOLDS was appointed on March 23, 2017 by Governor John R. Kasich for a term ending May 1, 2025, replacing Rev. Dr. Todd Davidson. He had previously served as a Community Board Member, from September 30, 2016, through March 23, 2017.

Mr. Reynolds is a Senior Vice President at KeyCorp, where he oversees the Cleveland market for Key Private Bank. In this role, he delivers customized advice and strategies that utilize investment management, wealth advisory, fiduciary and banking solutions to ensure successful outcomes for families across generations.

Over the course of a distinguished career that spans 30 years, Mr. Reynolds has excelled at meeting the needs of his clients, as well as those of their businesses or professions. Before joining Key Private Bank, he was Managing Director of JP Morgan's Private Bank in NE Ohio from 2009 to 2015. He previously served as Director of Northern Indiana for Merrill Lynch. He launched his career in 1987 with Dean Witter in New York City.

Mr. Reynolds earned a bachelor's degree in Finance and Management from Walsh University.

A highly visible member of the Cleveland community, Mr. Reynolds has a passion for helping to educate at-risk children. He is Chairman of the Board of the Friends of Ginn Academy, the only all-male public high school in the state of Ohio; and Chairman of the Board of Karamu House, the oldest African-American cultural arts institution in the country. He also is a trustee of University Hospitals Case Medical Center, the Cleveland/Cuyahoga County Workforce Development Board, the Cleveland Boy Scouts of America and the Great Lakes Science Center.

David and his wife, Cynthia, have two children, David Jr. and Brandon. They reside in Solon, Ohio.