

Cleveland State University

LEN KOMOROSKI was appointed on October 3, 2017 by Governor John R. Kasich to the Cleveland State University Board of Trustees for a term ending May 1, 2026. He previously served as a Community Board Member since September 30, 2016.

Mr. Komoroski is the Chief Executive Officer of the Cleveland Cavaliers and Quicken Loans Arena organization. The organization includes the Cleveland Monsters (AHL), Cleveland Gladiators (AFL), and Canton Charge (NBADL). In addition, he plays a leadership role for business operations and business-related endeavors for Cavs majority owner Dan Gilbert's family of sports and entertainment interests in Ohio. He is also a principal in Rock Gaming, which operates Jack Cleveland Casino. Most recently, he played a significant leadership role in securing Cleveland as the host city for the 2016 Republican National Convention.

With more than 30 years of experience in pro sports and entertainment, Mr. Komoroski is also very active in the community and as a civic leader. He serves on the board of directors of the Greater Cleveland Partnership, the Downtown Cleveland Alliance, and the Cleveland chapters of the American Red Cross and United Way. He is also Chairman of the Board for Destination Cleveland, Cleveland's convention and visitor's bureau.

Prior to joining the Cavaliers organization, Mr. Komoroski held leadership positions with the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles (1996-2003), the International Hockey League's Cleveland Lumberjacks (1994-96), and the NBA's Minnesota Timberwolves (1988-1994).

Mr. Komoroski is a 1982 cum laude graduate of Duquesne University. He and his wife Denise have four children.