

Cleveland State University

ROBYN N. GORDON has been reappointed to the Cleveland State University Board of Trustees as a Community Board Member on March 23, 2018 for a term ending on June 30, 2020.

Ms. Gordon serves as Director of the Center Operations Directorate at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) John H. Glenn Research Center at Lewis Field in Cleveland, Ohio. In this capacity, she manages organizational objectives, direction, resource allocation, and overall institutional functions. Gordon also coordinates and integrates activities of the institution, which cross directorate organizations.

Prior to this appointment, Ms. Gordon held a number of key positions at NASA Glenn, including Deputy Director of the Center Operations Directorate, Chief of the Diversity Management Office, and Chief of the Office of Human Resources and Workforce Planning. Ms. Gordon also played a key role in a number of NASA initiatives including the formulation of the NASA Safety Center, as an analyst in the Program and Integration Office at NASA Headquarters, and as Executive Officer to NASA's Deputy Administrator.

Ms. Gordon is a graduate of Cleveland State University with a Bachelor's Degree in Human Resources Management and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) Degree in Operations Management. She also completed the Senior Executive Fellows Program at the Harvard Kennedy School of Government. She is a member of the Junior League of Cleveland, the Society for Human Resources Management, the National Black MBA Association, and the League of Women Voters.

Her professional and personal accomplishments have been recognized by numerous organizations with many accolades, including the NASA Group Achievement Award (2009), Glenn Federal Women's Program Supervisory Award (2009), National Women of Color Technology Award for Community Service (2007), and Minorities in Research Science Trailblazers Award (2006).