

Join the CSU-Community Emergency Response Team!

Learn how to assist first responders during emergencies and disasters, provide aid to citizens before help arrives, and perform many other types of non-emergency community services. Instruction consists of 20 hours of hands-on training taught by professionally trained emergency personnel.

Classes are on Tuesdays & Thursdays from 4-6 pm in the Center for Emergency Preparedness, College of Urban Affairs (room 134) beginning on March 29 and continuing for five weeks.

To register, contact Lieutenant Beverly Pettrey at b.pettrey@csuohio.edu.
