* The Bylaws of the Board of Trustees were amended on January 26, 2023, and language regarding the ex officio member and chair of the CSU Foundation was amended. “...The chair of the Cleveland state university foundation board of directors shall serve as an ex officio member of the board of trustees for the duration of their term of office. The foundation chair shall serve as a member of the financial affairs committee and may vote at the committee and sub-committee meetings. As an ex officio member of the board of trustees, the foundation chair may participate in executive sessions of the full board, committees, and sub-committees at the discretion of the respective chairs.”

*The Bylaws of the Board of Trustees were amended on January 20, 2006 in order to expand the membership of the Board and its committees with other faculty and members of the community as non-voting advisors. The Chairman appoints community board members to serve a term as approved by the Board of Trustees.
