

Committee members can input comments and opinions up until the agenda administrator inputs a decision. Once the agenda administrator inputs a decision, the proposal will move forward to the next step if approved or move back to the originator if rejected.

Review the proposal

- Under the proposal name, see which type of form is being used. If this is a new course or program, skip to step 3.

- If this is a course or program modification, turn on tracked changes. Look in the right column. Under "User Tracking," select "Show current with markup" from the drop-down field.

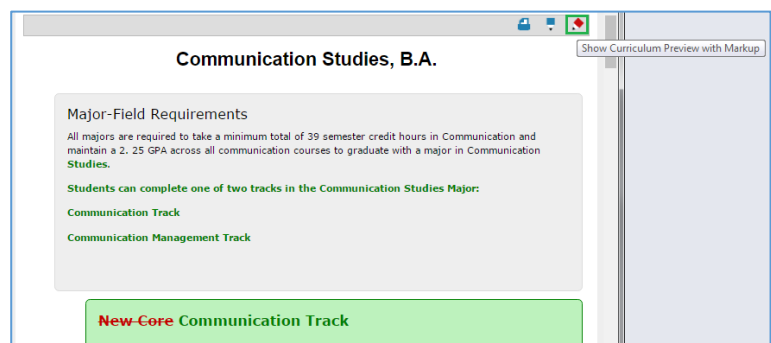

- Review the form on the left side.
- View attachments if applicable. In the floating menu on the right side, click the "Files" icon. Click the file name to download the file.

If this is a program modification, review prospective curriculum tracked changes

- When you reach the "Prospective Curriculum" area, click the "Preview Curriculum" button on the right. A pop-up window will appear.
- Click the "Show Curriculum Preview with Markup" icon (a red pencil) in the top right corner

Committee members: Provide your opinion

If you're a member of the committee that is currently reviewing the proposal, you can provide your opinion in the "Decisions" area.

- Click on the "Decisions" tab in the floating menu on the right of the screen
- Select the "Approve" or "Reject" radio button
- Click the "Provide My Opinion" button. Comments will be required if "Reject" is selected.

Your Decision
