

STATEMENT OF SELECTIVE SERVICE REGISTRATION STATUS

Ohio law¹ requires that Ohio-resident male students who are required to register with the United States Selective Service under federal law² and have not done so, are ineligible for the state of Ohio tuition subsidy and certain other financial assistance for educational expenses from the state of Ohio. State law further requires Cleveland State University and its male students to verify the student's Selective Service registration status by completing this Statement of Selective Service Registration Status Form.

Please check the box below that indicates your current Selective Service registration status:

Printed Name (Last, First, MI)

Student ID Number

I am a male, Ohio resident between the age of 18-26 and have registered with the United States Selective Service in accordance with the Military Selective Service Act.³

My Selective Service registration number is: _____
(If you are registered, but have not received or have lost your Selective Service registration number, call 1-847-688-6888.)

I am not required to register with the Selective Service because:
