SUCCESS DURING THE PANDEMIC?! LET US HELP YOU!

The COVID-19 pandemic has impacted our lives in countless ways, particularly in how learn and how our college experience looks. As the pandemic will continue to impact your studies and overall day to day lives throughout the Spring 2021 semester we would encourage you to take advantage of the resources that are available to you!

Whether it be checking in with the counseling center on your mental health, speaking with your TRIO advisor about strategies for success, meeting with All-In-1 to discuss your financial situation, or meeting with a TRIO tutor for a particularly difficult class, check in with us and we will make sure you get connected to the resource that can best help you! We know how difficult this is, let us help you!

TRIO STAFF SPOTLIGHT

For this edition's staff spotlight we are excited to introduce you to one of TRIO's academic advisors, Jason Gardner. Jason is originally from Fairborn, Ohio and received his BA in Communications from DuPauw University. He then earned his Master's of Higher Education with emphasis in Sport Administration from the University of Louisville in 2001. Jason loves working for TRIO as he has always been a huge advocate for student success and underrepresented students. Jason is a huge Kansas Jayhawks basketball fan and recently got to meet his idol Danny Manning while at the airport. Reach out to to Jason to learn more at j.gardner86@csuohio.edu
