

Cleveland State University

MORTON Q. LEVIN was appointed to the Cleveland State University Board of Trustees by Governor Ted Strickland on August 14, 2008 for a full term, ending May 1, 2017. He replaced Carl D. Glickman whose term expired. He was elected Board Treasurer in 2011 and continues to serve in that capacity as a Board officer, as well as Chair of the Financial Affairs Committee and Investments Subcommittee. His commitment to Cleveland State University includes a 20-year involvement with the Cleveland State University Foundation (Board of Directors), the Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs (Visiting Committee), and the Albert A. and Maxine G. Levin Advisory Committee (Chairperson).

Mort Levin founded Levin Group, Inc. in 1977, after having been engaged for ten years in the private practice of law and real estate development. In connection with real estate development, he is experienced in site selection and acquisition, securing local governmental approvals, securing construction and permanent financing, and the completion of construction and rent-up. His real estate experience is in multi-family housing, land development, industrial warehouses and retail shopping centers.

Mort's commitment to the Cleveland community is evidenced by his involvement in several community organizations. In addition to serving on the Board of Trustees of Cleveland State University, he is the immediate past President of Anshe Chesed Fairmount Temple and has been a Board Member for eight years. He has also served and has been involved on the Boards and committees of the Jewish Community Center, Jewish Community Federation, Jewish Big Brothers, University of Michigan College of LS&A Visiting Committee, Cleveland Music School Settlement, Cleveland Restoration Society, Shaker Heights High School Sports Booster Club and the Tom Evert Dance Company.
